1272.

Membrane 17—cont.

make a visitation in the houses of the order he is to be treated courteously.

Membrane 16.

April 10. Commitment to Thomas de Clare of the castle of Rokyngham and Westminster. the king’s forests between the bridges of Oxford and Stanford to keep during pleasure, rendering yearly at the Exchequer as much as Thomas de Greley used to render for the same.

Mandate to the executors of the will of R. king of Almain, to deliver the same to him.

Writ de intendendo to the tenants.

Mandate to Roger Lestrange to deliver the castle and bailiwick of Pec to Walter de Kancia to whom the attorneys of Edward the king’s son have committed it, as is more fully contained in letters patent of the attorneys which they are sending to him.

Writ de intendendo to the tenants.

April 10. Grant, during pleasure, to Edward the king’s son of the town of Westminster. Rochester, which the king lately caused to be taken into his hands, so that the said Edward answer for the farm at the Exchequer, and mandate to the bailiffs and good men to be intendant to him as keeper of the town.

Grant to Peter de Chavent of the wardship of the lands and heirs of Anketin Maulure, who held in chief, to hold to him and his heirs and assigns, with wards, reliefs, escheats, knights’ fees, advowsons of churches and dowers when they fall in, with the marriage of the heirs; provided that if the wardship exceed the value of 60l. yearly of land he shall do the king’s pleasure in respect of the surplus.

Mandate to John de Reyg[ate], escheator beyond Trent, to deliver the said wardship to him, with the issues since its caption.

April 11. Protection with clause volumus, for one year, for Thomas de Clare, Westminster. going beyond seas for business of the realm.

Whereas the attorneys of Edward the king’s son have committed to John de Cokefeud the castle of Colecestre and the hundred of Tendring, which the king committed to the said Edward to keep for five years, to keep under the said Edward during their pleasure, rendering to the king as other keepers have rendered; the king accepting that grant commands the tenants to be intendant to him.

Mandate to the constable of the castle of Colecestre to deliver the said castle and hundred to him.

Grant to Roger de Wauton, steward of the household, so far as pertains to the king, of the wardship of 20l. a year which William de Hastencote, lately deceased, who held in chief, used to take to him and his heirs by the hands of the prior of Bernewell of the farm of the manor of Cestreton which the prior holds of the king at fee farm; to hold during the minority of the heir.

April 12. Whereas the king after Michaelmas last granted to the abbot of Westminster. St. Edmund’s, by letters patent, that he might go beyond seas and