1272.

April 15. Protection with clause rogamus, for three years, for the master and infirm brethren of the hospital of St. Nicholas, Royston.

Grant to William de Wintreshull of that which pertains to the king of the marriage of Isabel late the wife of John de Gravenel who held of the archbishopric of Canterbury in chief, in the king's gift by reason of the voidance of the archbishopric, or of any fine which she will make for her marriage or the forfeiture which should pertain to the king if she marry against his will.

April 15. Grant to Bonamy, son of Joceus, Jew of York, that the king will not cause any extent, prorogation of terms, quittance or pardon to be made for five years of any debts wherein Hugh de Nevill, Oto de Stolbes and Geoffrey Picod or other debtors are bound to him.

The like, for three years, to Benedict Krespyn, Jew of York, as to debts wherein William de Carleton, Richard de Tweng and William son of William de Middelton of the county of York or other debtors are bound to him.

April 18. Although the king, by the council, has provided that any Jews may let their houses in the realm not to Christians but only to Jews, nevertheless because the king is certified that before that provision Henna late the wife of Aaron, Jew of York, let a house in the street of Coningstrete, York, to Robert de Appelby, citizen of York, for a term whereof there are still three years to run, for which term he satisfied her in advance, the king, because in the provision it was not his intention that Christians who had taken houses from Jews before the provision should be ejected by it before the end of the term, grants to the said Robert that he shall retain the said house until the end of the term.

Acknowledgment that the prior and convent of St. John the Baptist, Colecestre, delivered in the wardrobe to Peter de Wyntonia, keeper of the wardrobe, on Thursday after Palm Sunday, 56 Henry III, 33L 6s. 8d. whereby they made fine with the king for having the keeping of their house in the first voidance; and quittance to them of the same.

Exemption for life of Anketin de Auverne, king's merchant, from being put on assizes, juries or recognitions; grant also that throughout the king's realm and power he shall be quit of all tallages, prests, contributions and customs on his merchandise, saving the due and ancient prises.

Grant to Matthias Besill, king's yeoman, of the ransom of the lands late of Herbert le Mercer in Gloucester according to the form of the award of Kenilworth, if any such pertain to the king by occasion of trespasses charged against Herbert in the time of the disturbance.

April 18. Although the king lately caused 19 sacks of wool and 63 woolfells to be arrested as from Flemings by occasion of the contention between him and them, and John le Rus and Denis de Halling, of St. Omer,