Membrane 13—cont.

1272.

In 1272, Henry III.:

- Presented Thedisius de Camilla to the church of Wistanstowe and Hugh de Kendale to the church of Nalleston.
- Presented Michael de Norhampton and Payn de Cornubia respectively to the said churches.
- Presented Richard's clerks, to wit, Michael de Norhampton and Payn de Cornubia, which prevented the king's clerks from being admitted.
- Edmund de Alemannia, son of Richard, has given assent for himself and the other executors of the will of the said Richard.
- The king, to shew grace to his nephew for his assent, grants to him the knights' fees and advowsons of the said churches.

Simple protection without clause, for one year, for Isabel de Bosemere, wife of William de Bosemere.

MEMBRANE 12.

Protection and safe conduct for three years for Reyner Staf and John, his brother, merchants of the emperor of Constantinople (Constantini Neopol) coming to trade.

The like for Robert Staf and George his brother.

Simple protection without clause, for two years, for the abbot and convent of St. Martial, Limoges.

May 28. Exemption for life, at the instance of Augustine Oger, king's yeoman, Westminster, of William del Gerner from being put on assizes, juries or recognitions, and from being made sheriff etc. against his will.

Simple protection without clause, for three years, for Maud daughter of Thomas Bagge.

May 28. Grant to Ellis de Rabayn of the wardship of the lands and heirs of Westminster. Thomas Maudut, who held in chief, to hold to him, his heirs and assigns, with knights' fees, advowsons of churches, and dowers when they fall in, and with the marriage of the heirs.

Pardon, at the instance of William de Hanynnton, to Simon de Aldebury for the death of Amice de Wykinston.

Confirmation of a grant by William de Sancta Ermina to John de Witham, king's chaplain, his heirs and assigns, of the wardship of the lands and heirs of William de Staundon, with escheats, wards, advowsons of churches and dowers when they fall in, and the marriage of the heirs, which the king lately granted to the said William.

May 30. Quittance to the prioress of Godestowe, who has paid to the treasurers of Clerkenewell and the New Temple, London, and the other collectors of the twentieth at the said Temple 10 marks by