1272.

Membrane 10—cont.

these days come to his parts to do homage to him as he is bound without peril of death, he sends the said John to lay before him more fully the king's inability in this, and to excuse him to his lord for this cause now, as he has done by solemn envoys and proctors, humbly praying him to admit the excuse.

July 3. Notification to all persons that the king is sending Gaston, viscomte of Béarn, Thomas de Clare, Master John Clarel, canon of York, Luke de Tany, papal chaplain and seneschal of Gascony, and Master John Domingi to his lord and kinsman Philip, king of France, to crave and receive from him the county of Agen, the lands of Saintonge and certain other lands in the realm of France, which by the form of the peace made between Louis, sometime king of France, and the king, ought to belong and be assigned to the king after the death of Alfonse, count of Poitiers, and Joan, his wife, countess of Poitiers, both deceased.

Like letters procuratorial directed to the king of France under the names of the same, with suitable change of words, issued which were handed to J. Clarel.

A like proxy issued directed to all under the names of Gaston and John; and another under the same names directed to the king of France.

A like proxy issued directed to all &c. under the names of the said John and Luke; and another directed to the king of France.

A like proxy issued under the names of the said John and other lieges, with this additional clause:—'to sue and receive all the said lands which after the death of the count and countess, by the said peace or by any other right ought to belong to the lordship (dominium) of the king and his heirs.'

A like proxy issued under the names of Thomas de Clare and the said John; and another under the names of J. Clarel and John Dominigi.

Notification to all persons that the king has given power to the said Thomas and Master John Clarel to crave and receive from the king of France in the king's name the said lands and to do homage and fealty to the said king in his name for the land of Gascony and for the said lands.

Like letters issued directed to the king of France, with suitable change of words.

Notification to all persons that the king ordains the above persons as his proctors, now that all matters of question in the said peace have been settled, to require and receive all things which by that peace ought to be restored to him.

Like letters issued to the king of France, with suitable change of words.

Also letters of credence, close, were made under the name of John Clarel, directed to the king of France in the above matters.

Also like letters, close, issued under the names of the said John, Thomas Clarel, Gaston de Biern and Luke de Tany.

Membrane 9.

June 10. Quittance to Llewelin son of Griffin, prince of Wales, for 2,000 Windsor marks, paid by the hand of Poncius de Mora, merchant, of that