1272.

Membrane 2—cont.

Oct. 21. Licence for the dean and chapter of Limerick to elect a bishop, upon Master William de Jacton, their fellow-canonical, coming to the king with their letters patent announcing the death of Robert, their bishop.

Quittance to the prior of Hornchurch (de Monasterio Cornuto), because he has paid to the attorneys of Edward, the king's son, at the New Temple, London, 5 marks in respect of the twentieth incident upon him and his villeins, as appears by letters of William de Middelton and Giles de Audenardo, appointed to audit the amount of the said twentieth, and his villeins of the said 5 marks.

The like to the following priors and their villeins:
  - Caldwell, of 2 marks.
  - Wirmegeye, for 20s.
  - Wenge, for 2½ marks.

MEMBRANE 1.

Commission of oyer and terminer to John de Ok, on complaint by William de Middelton, son and heir of Richard de Middelton, sometime the chancellor, that whereas Thomas de Fenwik leased to the said Richard two years ago, the manors of Fenwik and Matfen, co. Northumberland, except 3 messuages, 1 carucate and 96 acres of land, 8 acres of meadow, and two parts of two mills, for six years, and the said Richard bequeathed to complainant the said manors for the said term; the said Thomas, Ralph de Torresby, Gilbert de Swakeneye, Richard le Keu, John son of William de Matfen and Ellis le Petit, lately came to the said manor of Fenwik and ejected him while he was under the king's protection, to his damage of 50 marks.

Oct. 20. Confirmation of a lease by William de Bello Campo, earl of Warwick, to Edmund de Alemannia, earl of Cornwall, the king's nephew, of his manor of Brales for three years from St. Luke the Evangelist, 56 Henry III.

By K. the archbishop of York, Thedisius de Camilla and Peter de Chaumpvent.

Mandate to the tenants of the hospital of Ospringe and the brethren of that hospital, that, whereas on account of dilapidations done by Henry de Bukingham late warden, the king caused him to be removed, and with the common counsel of the brethren committed the hospital to Robert de Taneth, to keep, during pleasure, and whereas the hospital, as he now learns, is burdened with debt to its irreparable damage unless a remedy be found, the king grants that the said Walter by the common counsel and assent of the brethren and the counsel of Thomas de Rouwell, king's clerk, if he can be present, may order and dispose of the goods of the hospital as shall be most to the advantage of the same; and therefore he commands them to be intendant to Walter as master and warden of the hospital.

Quittance to the prioress of St. Giles, Flemstede, because she has paid to the attorneys of Edward, the king's son, at the New Temple, London, 1 mark in respect of the twentieth incident upon her and her villeins, as appears by letters of the above-mentioned auditors, and her villeins of the said twentieth.