which the king had given to the said John in part satisfaction of his wages; and the king has promised to keep the said Robert harmless towards the said Jew or others thereof.

April 8. Acknowledgment that Nicholas de Lindesey, on 5 April, before Westminster. Master William de la Cornere and his fellows, appointed to expedite the business of English merchants whose goods are arrested in Flanders, paid at St. Martin le Grand, London, to Nicholas de la Pole, Henry de Coventre and Alexander le Riche, collectors and receivers of goods of Flemings to the use of English merchants in compensation for losses sustained for the king in Flanders, 100s. wherein he was bound to Flemings.

The like to the following for money paid as above:

- William Goldyng of Lenne, on 4 April, 18l. wherein he was bound to Walter de Posterne, burgess of Bruges.
- Geoffrey Gavel of Yarmouth, on 4 April, 1l. 3s. 10d., and Adam Gavel 60s. wherein they were bound to Alexander de Ardenburg of Flanders.
- William Aleynt of Yarmouth, 4l. 6s.
- Henry de Drayton, 2s.
- William de Drayton, 5s.
- Robert de Goseford, 3s.
- Roger de Hardel, 7s.

April 28. Commission to G. bishop of Worcester, and Roger de Mortuo Mari Westminster. to hear and settle (pacificandas) divers contentions that have arisen between the chancellor and scholars of the university of Oxford and the mayor and burgesses of that town, and to cause reasonable amends to be made to the said chancellor and scholars, whose liberties and rights the king wills shall be maintained and defended.

May 10. Acknowledgment that the abbot of Faveresham, 9 May, paid to Westminster. the receivers above mentioned 6l. 10s. wherein he was bound to James Plotekin of Flanders.

May 20. Signification to Philip, king of France, that whereas the king on Westminster. account of the grievous infirmity in which he has long laboured, cannot in these days cross to do homage without peril of death, he is sending John de la Linde to excuse him, as he has often by solemn envoys and proctors made his excuses.

Whereas two years ago the king granted to Roger de Leyburn the manor late of Robert de Ferrariis of Stanford with the advowson of the church of that manor, whereby he, in the late voidance of the church, presented Thomas de Rokel, his clerk, to the same, and requested W. bishop of Salisbury in the usual way to admit him, and the bishop, by pretext of an inquisition upon patronage and taken by such persons as do not know whether Roger be patron of the church or not has refused to admit him, as the king is informed; the king, for the indemnity of Roger and Thomas, asks the bishop to admit the said Thomas, as it is certain that Roger ought to present in right of the manor which is in his hands.