promoted and consecrated to be bishop of Winchester, whose oath of fealty the king has received in person, saving to the king the fruits and things belonging to him in that bishopric.

Mandate to the tenants of the bishopric to be intendant to him.

Signification to the king of France that, in the cause which Reynold de Pontibus and Margaret his wife have against the king in the court of the king of France touching the castle of Bergerac, he makes Robert Waleraund, his knight, his proctor for Wednesday after the quinzaine of the Assumption and following days, if any.

Aug. 27. St. Germain des Prés.

Presentation of Boniface de Castellana, canon of Glandéves, to the church of Eblesburn, void by the death of Master Roger Lovell, and in the king's gift by reason of the bishopric of Winchester being in his hand directed to the bishop of Salisbury.

Notification to the king of France that the king has appointed Robert Waleraund and John de la Linde, knights, and Master Nicholas de Plumpton, archdeacon of Norfolk, as his proctors in the above cause upon the castle of Bergerac for the said Wednesday and any following days.

The like of the appointment of Adam de Grenvull and Aldebert le Provost as the king's proctors in the matter of the castle of Gensac which the said Reynold and Margaret are moving against the king in the court of the king of France on Monday before the Nativity of the Virgin Mary and following days.

The like of the appointment of the same as the king's proctors in the cause before the king of France between the king, of the one part, and the said Reynold and Margaret of the other part, touching the castle of Gensac.

The like of the appointment of the same proctors to swear on the king's soul, if need be, that the king did not propound the exceptions propounded for him in the court of the king of France on Sunday last in the said matter of Gensac maliciously nor for the purpose of delaying the business but because the king believes that they are true.

Grant to H. archbishop of Embrun, personally and not to his church, of 100 marks a year, in some certain part of the lands late of the earl of Gloucester, so long as the king has the wardship thereof and when that passes out of the king's hand, the king will cause the 100 marks to be assigned to him in the first wardship falling in; and, if it happen that no sufficient wardship fall in, he will cause the said money to be paid to him or his messenger from the Exchequer of London.

Signification to B. archbishop of Canterbury of the royal assent to the election of Master Richard Talebot, dean of the church of St. Paul, London, to be bishop of the same place, as the chapter have signified to the king by their letters patent:
