1262.

Sept. 11.
St. Germain des Prés.

Notification by the king and queen that for their necessary expenses and affairs they have received a loan of 7,000 pounds of Paris by tale from Hubert, treasurer of the Temple, Paris, to be repaid to him or his order within this instant Purification at the Temple, Paris, and for this repayment they bind to him their heirs, their goods, moveable or immovable, within the realm and without. And if they die before the money be repaid, they grant that their heirs and successors and the executors of their wills shall have no administration of their goods until the treasurer be satisfied in full of the said 7,000 pounds and likewise of any damages and expenses incurred through non-payment in the said term. And they beseech Louis, king of the French, if they make default in payment, to compel and distrain them, their heirs, successors and executors &c., they renouncing all aid of law and any remedy &c.

[In the margin. This letter is duplicated.]

Sept. 8.
St. Germain des Prés.

Grant to Imbert de Monteferrat of the wardship of the lands and heirs of Philip de Columbaris, who held in chief, with the marriage of the heirs.

Mandate to Philip Basset justiciary of England, and W. de Merton, chancellor, to give seisin to the said lands to him or his attorney bearing these letters, saving the dower of the wife of the said Philip, which they are to assign to her without delay.

St. Germain des Prés.

Grant to Peter de Wyntonia, king's clerk, of the deanship of Tetenhale; to hold as freely as the deans his predecessors held and ought to have held by reason of the king's collation.

Mandate to the sheriff of Stafford and Salop to give him seisin.

Sept. 20.
St. Germain des Prés.

Grant, during pleasure, to John de Lynde [de la Lynde, in the margin], seneschal of the Limousin, Quercy ('Caturcien') and Périgord, of 1,000l. a year, to be taken out of the issues of his bailiwick in the same manner and out of the same money as Bertram de Cadyllac, sometime seneschal of those parts, used to take to maintain him in the king's service in those parts.

Grant to him, with respect to the king's order that he should cause 100 or 200 men at arms to come to the castle of Limoges to succour the burgesses of that castle, that what he has laid out on them in so coming or in replacing any horses, lost in the king's service, shall be allowed to him by testimony of good men, in the issues of his bailiwick.

Sept. 22.
St. Germain des Prés.

Presentation of Roger de Messenden to the church of Caylmerch, in the king's gift by reason of his wardship of the lands late of R. earl of Gloucester; directed to the bishop of Lincoln.

Vacated because he surrendered the letter.

MEMBRANE 2.

Grant to John de Vescy, king's yeoman, of 40 marks a year at the Exchequer, for his maintenance so long as he be a minor and in the king's ward; saving to him those things which he has been accustomed to take by the hands of the buyer of the wardrobe, as in cloth and other things.