Sept. 18. Charter, notifying that Edward the king’s son, in the king’s presence surrendered and quit-claimed to Peter de Sabaudia the honour, castle and rape of Hastings, co. Sussex, with the lands late of Walter de Scotenoy which came to the hands of the said Edward by escheat by occasion of the death of the said Walter, and with knights’ fees, advowsons of churches and prebends, services of freemen and villeins and all other things pertaining to the said honour, castle and rape, and with the service of one knight’s fee in Turrok, co. Essex, which Bartholomew de Bryencun holds of the said honour; and granting the said honour, castle and rape, lands late of the said Walter and service of one knight’s fee to the said Peter, his heirs and assigns, for the manors of Radenhal, co. Norfolk, Wysete, Ketelberg, Netlested and Wyk under Ipswich, with knights’ fees, advowsons of churches, services of free men and villeins and all other liberties and free customs thereto belonging, and with 4l. 13s. yearly of rent which Peter receives yearly of Ipswich co. Suffolk, which are of the honour of Rychemund previously granted to the said Peter by the king and which, to wit the manors with appurtenances and the rent Peter has surrendered to the king and quit-claimed to the use of the said Edward in exchange for the above. So that the said Peter, his heirs and assigns, shall hold the premises with the said honour of Rychemund by the same service as he held the said honour before the said exchange, to wit, by the service of 5 knights’ fees; so that the king will not disseise Peter or permit him to be disseised of the said honour, castle, rape, lands and knights’ fees until he has made him a reasonable exchange for the same together with any approvement made by him, or allowance made to him for the cost laid out by him in strengthening or improving the said castle; on condition that whatever the said Peter, his heirs or assigns have retained to themselves of the said honour, rape, lands and fee, as in services, fees, homages or exchanges, shall be held of the king and his heirs by the said service.

Witnesses:—John Maunsell, treasurer of York, Robert Walerand, Ebulo de Montibus, Matthias Beziles, Imbert de Muntferaunt, Peter de Neville, Adam de Greyynvill and Master Henry de Gandavo, Geoffrey de Percy, and others.
