Grant, out of the affection which the king had towards Baldwin de Gournay Sur Insula, sometime earl of Devon, to the executors of his will, that they shall have free administration of his goods for the execution of the will and that the king will betake himself to Baldwin's heirs for the debts in which he was bound to him on the day of his death.

Protection with clause, for two years from Easter, for B. archbishop of Canterbury, who is beyond seas.

The like, for one year, for Master Walter de Idenham, clerk of the said archbishop.

Grant to John Dylung', burgess of Arras, in 150L which he has paid for the king to Guy de Lezinian, the king's brother, for his fee of Easter term next; with promises to repay the same at the said term. Mandate to the treasurer and chamberlains of the Exchequer to pay the same accordingly, and after payment made to receive from the said burgess the said bond, taking care that if the king owe not so much to his brother for the said term, they deduct it out of the fee which the king by writ of Liberate has ordered to be paid.

Grant to Ralph de Pasey, citizen of Paris, who has shown great courtesy to the king and his . . . , that he shall have 120 tuns of wine which he is taking to England quit of all the king's prise, saving the ancient prise of two tuns in every ship.

Notification to the chapter of St. Paul's, London, that the king has given to Peter de Wintonia, king's clerk, the prebend late of . . . affeyte, sometime their fellow-canon, in the king's gift by reason of the voidance of the bishopric of London; and mandate to them to assign him a stall in the choir and a place in the chapter.

Protection for the Friars Minors dwelling at St. Edmunds until the king's coming to St. Edmunds; with mandate to all persons to maintain and defend them and their house.

In like manner is commanded to Philip Basset, justiciary of England, by letter close.

Protection with clause for Master Thomas de Wesenham, the king's surgeon, now with the king in France, for such time as he be with the king.

Charter reciting that whereas the king when he espoused his consort Eleanor, queen of England, he by charter assigned to her in dower, for 10,000L yearly of land in England, the following cities, boroughs and towns, to wit, the cities of Worcester and Bath, the borough of Gloucester with the castle, the boroughs of Cantebrig and Huntingdon, saving to the king advowsons of cathedral churches, abbeys and priories therein, and the towns of Wych, Basingestok, Andevere, Chilham, Gumecestre, Clive, Kingston, Ospring and Ludinglond [Calendar of Charter Rolls, Vol. I, p. 218] and a third part of all the lands which the king had in Ireland, Gascony and elsewhere in parts beyond the seas, acquired or to be acquired, as well in castles as in lands, fees and tenements —now wishing to provide for the profit and utility of his heirs and the security and tranquillity...