Membrane 1—cont.

Memorandum that the letter of the king sent to them over the appointment of the morrow of the quinzaine of Martinmas was sent to them.

Nov. 2. Compiègne (Compend').

Notification to the chapter of St. Paul's, London, that the king has given to Ralph de Dunton, king's clerk, the prebend late of Peter de Ryvallis, sometime their fellow-canon, in the king's gift by reason of the voidance of the bishopric of London; and mandate to them to assign him a stall in the choir and a place in the chapter.

Grant to Michael de Fenl', king's clerk, of the deanery of the free chapel of Brugges, void by the death of Peter de Ryvallis; with mandate to the constable of the castle of Bruges to give him seisin thereof.

Dec. 4. Compiègne.

Signification to the archbishop of Canterbury of the royal assent to the election of Master Henry de Sandwico to be bishop of London.

[Dec.] 7. Compiègne.

To Henry de Cusancia. Whereas the king by letters patent lately commanded the keeper of the castle of Gensac to deliver that castle to Bernard Johannis, king's servant, to deliver it to Reginald de Pontibus and Margaret his wife, saving the right of the king and of Edward his son, and the said keeper has not executed the said command, which the king takes gravely; he commands the said Henry to deliver the said castle to the bearer, and not to fail as he will avoid the king's indignation.

Protection with clause, until Easter, for Geoffrey de Lezynnan, the king's brother.

Protection . . . for Bartholomew de Bryanzun, who is in France on the service of Edward, the king's son.

Membrane 1d.

Acknowledgment that the king is bound to Master Simon de Vercell', king's clerk, in 100 marks, to wit, in 60 marks for his labours and expenses about the king's business in France, and 40 marks for his fee of the present year; with promise to pay the said sum within the quinzaine of the Purification.

Pardon to Simon de Wyvele . . . for the death of Richard de Boudon; as it appears by inquisition made by Peter de Percy, John de Oketon and John de Raygate, that he killed him in self defence. At the instance of Henry de Ferlington.

Pardon to William son of Hugh de Clane of his escape from the prison of Hereford and also of his abjuration of the realm which he made on account of such escape, for some trespasses done in the marches of Wales, and for all other trespasses charged against him after his abjuration.

By K. J. Maunsell, and Imbert de Muntferaunt; at the instance of the bishop of Hereford.
