MEMBRANE 35—cont.

Robert Barton in the port of Exeter and ports and places from thence on one side to Sydemouth and there and on the other towards the west by the counties of Devon and Cornwall to Briggewater. By bill of the treasurer.

Robert Sclibotyll in the port of Scardeburgh and ports and places adjacent. By bill of the treasurer.

William Lede in the port of Sandwich and ports and places from thence on one side to Graveshende and on the other to Romney and there. By bill of the treasurer.

MEMBRANE 34.

Ratification of the estate which John Clare, chaplain, has as warden of the chantry in the king’s free chapel of Wyborne or Wymyn stretre, in the diocese of Salisbury.

The like for the following:—

Robert Thresk, parson of the church of Yelvertoft, in the diocese of Lincoln.

Vacated because below.

Richard Thorn, parson of the church of Rothyn Beauchamp, in the diocese of London.

Thomas Grene, vicar of the church of Grosmont, in the diocese of Llandaff.

Thomas More, prebendary of St. Margaret, Leiceste, in the cathedral church of Lincoln.

William Gryme, vicar of the church of Eton, in the diocese of Hereford.

Thomas de Hornby, vicar of the church of Kyrkham, in the diocese of York.

William Lamprey, parson of the church of Aka, in the diocese of Hereford.

Richard Clifford, dean of the cathedral church of St. Peter, York, prebendary of Rykal in the same, archdeacon of Canterbury, prebendary of Leyghton Busard in the cathedral church of St. Mary, Lincoln, Blebury in the cathedral church of St. Mary, Salisbury, and Wyvelescombe in the cathedral church of Wells, and master and warden of the hospital of St. James by Westminster. By K.

Thomas Yokflete, prebendary of Langstowe in the cathedral church of Lincoln. By p.s.

Robert Skyrne, warden of the hospital of St. Ellen called ‘Bracefordspitie,’ co. York. By K.

Jorum ap Yevan, portioner of the portion which Lewelin Iscolayk lately had in the parish church of Aberdaron, in the diocese of Bangor.

Master Nicholas Archer, vicar of the church of Appuldre, in the diocese of Canterbury.