1399.

Appointment, during good behaviour, of the king’s clerk Thomas Stanley as keeper of the rolls of Chancery, with all things belonging to the office, receiving the accustomed fees.

Commission, during pleasure, to John Norbury, esquire, of the office of treasurer of the Exchequer, with all things pertaining to the office.

Appointment, during pleasure, of John Cassy as chief baron of the Exchequer, receiving the accustomed fees.

The like of the king’s clerk Laurence Allenborough as second baron.

The like of the king’s clerk Thomas Ferry as third baron.

The like of the king’s clerk William Forde as one of the barons.

The like of John Staverton.

Grant, during good behaviour, to the king’s clerk John Godmanston of the office of chamberlain of the Exchequer, with the fees pertaining to the office.

Presentation of John Pike, parson of the church of Spaxton, in the diocese of Bath and Wells, to the vicarage of Holcombe Regis, in the diocese of Exeter, on an exchange of benefices with Henry Portjoye.

Writ of aid for John Corp, whom the king’s chief butler, has appointed his deputy in all ports within the county of Devon during the king’s pleasure.

The like for the following:

William Debenham in the ports of Ipswich and Colchester.

John Tunstall of Wynchemlee in the ports of Wynchemlee and Rye.

Richard Edward in the ports of Shorham, Hornmouth, Seford, Langston and Southkymeeton.

Hugh atte Fen in the port of Jernemouth.

Richard Boydon in the ports of Bruggewe, Connewych and Dunster.

John Wynter in the ports of Sandwich and Dover.

John Beche in the port of Southampton.

Philip Botte of Melcombe in the ports of Weymouth and Melcombe.

John Dunkan in the port of Newcastle on Tyne and Whitley.

John Cok in the port of Boston.