1399.

Membrane 25—cont.

letters patent dated 2 June, 18 Richard II, granting to him for life 100s. yearly at the Exchequer. By p.s. and for God because he is poor.

Inspecimus and confirmation to the burgesses of Cardigan of the following:—

1. A charter dated at Lambeth, 2 April, 14 Henry III, granting that they shall be quit of toll, passage and portage and all customs throughout the realm. [Charter Roll, 14 Henry III, Part I, m. 10.]
2. Letters patent dated 28 September, 34 Henry III, confirming the provision made for the division of burgages and curtilages.
5. A charter dated at Windsor, 22 September, 19 Richard II. [Charter Roll, 18 and 19 Richard II, No. 10.]

MEMBRANE 24.

Inspecimus and confirmation to Philip la Vache of the following:—

1. Letters patent dated 25 April, 2 Richard II, granting to him for life the custody of the manor of Wodestok and the park there and the manor of Ilanebergh, at a yearly rent of 127l. 16s. 6d.
2. Letters patent dated 16 June, 18 Richard II, granting to him for life 50l. yearly from the issues of the counties of Oxford, Bedford and Buckingham.
3. Letters patent dated 5 May, 19 Richard II, granting to him for life the custody of the park of Chilterne Langeley.
4. Letters patent of the same date granting to him for life the custody of the manor of Chilterne Langeley.
5. Letters patent of Thomas, archbishop of York, now archbishop of Canterbury, and Edward, earl of Rutland, (to whom the king had granted for life all lands late of Anne, late queen of England), dated at London, 18 November, 20 Richard II, granting to him for life with the king's assent the manor of Berkle with the hamlet of Horton and other appurtenances, except knights' fees, advocons, wards, marriages, reliefs and escheats, rendering to them 50 marks yearly and supporting all charges, as did John Golofre, 'chivaler,' deceased, during the life of the queen.
6. Letters patent of the same of the same date granting to him for life the custody of the park and lodge of Berkle, co. Oxford, with the accustomed fees, as John Golofre had. And grant to him of the premises for life and all arrears for the terms of Easter and Michaelmas last.

By p.s. and for 8 marks paid in the hanaper.

Grant for life to Agnes Pikworth of the profits and commodities from the shambles within the town of Bristol to the value of 20 marks yearly, provided that she answer for any surplus.

Vacated by surrender and cancelled, because on 29 December the king granted the shambles to her for life.

Appointment, during pleasure, from Michaelmas last, of Thomas Derby as steward and receiver of all monies of the lordships, manors and castles