1399.

and should not have been alienated by him except by sale by the advice of the great council; the king nevertheless confirms the estate of the said John and Anne in the premises and grants that on the death of her and her said heirs they shall remain to Richard son of the said James and his heirs.

Nov. 10. Westminster. Grant for life to the said Anne of the manors of Rodyngberners, Bernestone and Cryppynge, co. Essex, and the parks, warrens, fees and advowsons pertaining to them, belonging to the king by the forfeiture of the said James as above, with remainder to the said Richard and his heirs, notwithstanding the ordinance in Parliament, 11 Richard II.

By p.s.

Oct. 25. Westminster. Inspecimus and confirmation of letters patent dated 8 May, 22 Richard II, granting for life to Ponceius, lord of Castelhou, the reversion of the provostship of Dax in Aquitaine.

By p.s. and for 40s. paid in the hanaper.

MEMBRANE 1.

Nov. 14. Westminster. Inspecimus and confirmation of the following:—

1. Letters patent dated 28 December, 14 Richard II, granting for life to John Reuel 6d. daily.

By p.s. and for 10s. paid in the hanaper.

By p.s. and for 2 marks paid in the hanaper.

Memorandum:—This fine was made for the confirmation of these letters and certain other letters afterwards cancelled in the fifth year.

MEMBRANE

Nov. 9. Westminster. Commission to John Lysole, ‘chivaler,’ John Popham, ‘chivaler,’ Thomas Romeyse, Robert Martyn, John Auntyoche, Walter atte Welle, John Veer and Ednund Enefeld to arrest John Andrewe, canon of Christchurch, Twynham, co. Southampton, of the order of St. Augustine, who lately left his house secretly without licence of his prior and obtained divers bulls in the court of Rome, contrary to the regular obedience of his order and the form of the statute of Provisors, and with a multitude of partisans has personally shown them to the prior at the priory, and to bring him before the king in Chancery with the bulls.

MEMBRANE 11d.

Nov. 10. Westminster. Commission to Th. archbishop of Canterbury, on the supplication of the dean and chapter of the cathedral church of St. Mary, Salisbury, by petition in Parliament that whereas John Waltham, late bishop of Salisbury, in his last will bequeathed his body to be buried in the said church and his better and more precious vestment to the said church, but after his death by the counsel and procurement of William Lescrope, late