they were accordingly seised of the same, and afterwards the pope united the church to the monastery and the church became void by the resignation of the parson and the abbot and convent obtained possession of it and now hold it to their own uses and have caused it to be served by a monk; the king, for 20l. paid in the hanaper, confirms their estate therein, provided that a vicar be sufficiently endowed and a competent sum of money be distributed yearly among the poor parishioners of the church at the discretion of the ordinary.

By p.s.

March 7. Westminster.

\textit{Insperimus} and confirmation to Robert Love of letters patent dated 8 July, 18 Richard II, granting to him for life 40s. yearly from the issues of the manor of Cosham; and grant to him for life of 40s. yearly from the same, which Walter Wykorne had by letters patent of Richard II, surrendered.

By p.s.

Grant to the king's servants John Halley, Thomas Yonge and John Crosseby of all goods and chattels late of Master William Feriby in the custody of Thomas Tolereton, parson of the church of St. Martin Organ, London, pertaining to the king by the forfeiture of the said William, to the value of 20l., provided that they answer for any surplus.

By p.s.

Licence, on the mainprise of Thomas Everdon, clerk, and John Waddesworth, clerk, for Nicholas Pynghlas, citizen of Dublin, to buy 600 quarters of wheat, barley and malt in Ireland and ship them from the ports of Dublin, Clontarf, Houthe and Basydowyll to England or Wales.

By p.s. and for 100s. paid in the hanaper.

Letters of denization for Peter de la Mare of Gascony.

By p.s. and for 100s. paid in the hanaper.

Whereas William de Monte Acuto, late earl of Salisbury, by charter granted to the king's knight William de Farendon and his heirs the manor of Aston Clynton, co. Buckingham, with the advowson of the church of the manor, held in chief, and he had confirmation of the same from Richard II by letters patent, and the said earl granted to him and his heirs the reversion of all lands which he had in Douneirg and Monjoe, co. Buckingham, on the death of Alice sometime the wife of John Camoill and also granted to Richard Pany and his heirs the reversion of the manor of Hyde, co. Hertford, on her death, and she made attornment to the said Richard, who surrendered his estate to the said William, and she made attornment to the said William, and the latter was for the space of two years in possession of the said manor, advowson and reversion and afterwards the said earl died and by the compassing of John de Monte Acuto, last earl of Salisbury, deceased, inquisitions were taken by which it was found that the said earl William died seised of the premises and accordingly the late king caused them to be taken into his hands, and afterwards on the death of the said earl John it was found by inquisitions that he died seised of the premises, and they have been taken into the king's hands; the king, at the supplication of the said William de Farendon, grants the premises to him and his heirs.

By p.s.

March 17. Westminster.

Appointment for life of Hugh Shirley, 'chivaler,' as master of all falcons, goshawks, lanners, lannerets and other hawks \textit{(aurem)} to be bought for the king's use in Ireland, receiving the accustomed fees, wages and other profits.

\textit{Vacated because elsewhere in this year.}

By p.s.

Grant for life to Richard de Goldesburgh of 40l. yearly at the Exchequer from Michaelmas last, in lieu of a grant to him from the customs and