Thomas the chamberlain, John son of Norman, William the clerk, Robert son of Ernis', Robert the clerk and others.

(2.) A charter of Philip the clerk of Chester, granting to them free exit of the water from their garden by the middle of the land which he has under the wall of the city opposite the water of Dee by the garden of Robert Mercener, so that he and his heirs may no damage nor be hindered in ploughing and sowing. Witnesses: Sir Reginald de Grey, justice of Chester, Adam de Verdon, constable of Chester castle, Robert the clerk, chamberlain of the same, Robert Mercener, mayor of Chester, Hugh de Moles, Robert Erneis, sheriff of Chester, Dan' de Derestur, Robert Harald, Geoffrey the clerk and others.

(3.) A charter of the same granting to them in frank almoine a way across the croft which he has under the wall of the city opposite the water of Dee by the quarry, and claiming nothing but prayers and orisons, the way measuring 8 feet in breadth without the ditch by his garden and extending from the wall of the city to Eyam. Witnesses: Sir Roger de Grey, justice of Chester, Adam de Verdon, constable of the castle of Chester, Robert the clerk, chamberlain of the same, Robert Mercener, mayor of Chester, Hugh de Moles, Robert Erneis, sheriff of Chester, Alexander Hurld, Randolph de Deresburi, Robert Harald, Robert de Ternent, Geoffrey the clerk and others.

(4.) A charter of Richard son of Alvred granting to them in frank almoine with his two daughters Beatrice and Jocta the land of Homoetage which he took with his wife. Witnesses: Simon son of Osbert, Heltus de Boisdere, Walter de Hambri and others.

(5.) A charter of Simon son of Osbert confirming the said grant of the said land of Homoetage of the marriage of Mie, the wife of Richard and sister of Simon, and granting to them a land across the bridge of Chester called 'Gfreis Hale.' Witnesses: Torendus the canon, Richard son of Alvred and Robert his brother, Alexander the clerk, William the proud and others.

(6.) A charter of the same granting to them in frank almoine the manors of Chester which Richard son of Ishenarch held, and Richard his son holds and the said Richard and his homage and service and a bovate of land in Claverton. Witnesses: Hugh, earl of Chester, Bertre the countess, Ralph son of Waryn, Ralph son of Simon son of Osbert, de Sancto Patricio, Walter the priest of Holy Trinity, de Pulford, Geoffrey de Clinchamp and others.

(7.) A charter of Richard son of Nigel addressed to his lord the earl of Chester and others, notifying that Robert de Roghes with his consent has granted to the nuns four bovates of land in Cristeaton and he for the soul of his father has granted to them all that pertains to him in the same. Witnesses: Richard the chaplain, Simon the chaplain, William son of Nigel, Serho the hunter, Roger de Glanyile Robert son of William, William the proud (Loreghd) and Laurence his son, Hugh de Bassot, Robert son of Wace, Andrew son of Richard, Simon de Falesia, Roger Tard and others.

(8.) A charter of Robert de Roges granting to them in frank almoine with the consent of his lord Richard son of Nigel with