1400.

July 18.
York.

July 26.
Newcastle
on Tyne.

July 27.
Newcastle
on Tyne.

June 27.
Pontefract
Castle.

June 26.
York.

Aug. 4.
Newcastle
on Tyne.

Aug. 1.
Newcastle
on Tyne.

July 8.
York.

Membrane 35—cont.

Protection with clause voluntas, for one year, for Edward Charleton, knight, going on the king’s service and in his company to Scotland. By K.

The like for John de Pylkyngton, ‘chivaler,’ going on the king’s service to Scotland.

The like for John Tourney also going.

The like for William Snyth, going on the king’s service to the Isle of Man.

Appointment of the king’s clerk Master Alan Nework and the king’s esquire John Mitford as the king’s commissaries to treat with the commissaries of Robert, his adversary of Scotland, concerning peace or a truce.

The like of Ralph de Euere, ‘chivaler,’ and the said Alan and John.

Mandate to the king’s clerk Robert Claydon, keeper of the hanaper of Chancery, to deliver to the king’s kinswoman queen Isabel or her attorney 400l. from the issues of the hanaper for the expenses of her household.

Order to the captain of the town of Berwick on Tweed and his lieutenant to command all soldiers there not to leave the castle and town but to stay there for the defence of the same.

The like to the captain of the castle of Rokesbergh and his lieutenant.

Grant for life to the king’s knight Thomas Hempston, steward of the household, of the custody of the king’s castle of Notyngham with the supervision of the forest of Shirwode and the parks of Beskwode and Clypston within the forest with wages, fees, meadows, feedings, pastures, mills and other profits and commodities as William Arundell or John Golafre or William de Neville or anyone else had.

Safe conduct, until Easter, for Ector de Pontbreant of the power of France, esquire, and his men to the number of 15 persons.

Mandate to the king’s clerk Robert Claydon, keeper of the hanaper of Chancery, to deliver without fee certain letters patent in his custody (see p. 352) granting safe-conduct to George Dunbarre, earl of March of Scotland, and Master John Merton, archdeacon of Tevydale, and Adam Forster.

MEMBRAND 31.

Acquittance of the king’s clerk John Elvet of certain sums of money lent to the king which he has received at the king’s command, viz. 200l. from the mayor and burgesses of Kyngeston on Hull, 100l. from William Rolleston, William Ythome and Stephen Coppandale of Beverley, 100l. from John Kolk and William Byrde of Beverley, 100l. from John Grone of Grantham, 300l. from the mayor and good men of Coventre and 20l. from William Spenser of Leycestre, and which at the king’s command he has delivered to the king’s esquire John Curson for the payment of the wages of the king’s soldiers on his present journey to Scotland. By K.