Membrane 34—cont.

Commission to William Repynntgton, Walter Drury and John Kirkleby to take carriage and horses for carrying the king's jewels. By K.

MEMBRANE 33.

Commission, during the king's present journey to Scotland, to John Feriby and John Brian to take ships for the carriage of wheat, wine, ale, peas, beans and other victuals for the expenses of the king's household on his journey and the lords and others in his company, and men at arms or armed men, archers and mariners for the same. By K.

Grant to the mayor, bailiffs and good men of Hertilpole of murage for ten years.

Presentation of Robert Tunstall, king's clerk, to the church of Great Dunmowc, in the diocese of London.

Mandate to the king's clerk Robert Claydon, keeper of the hanaper of Chancery, to deliver without fee certain letters patent in his custody (see pp. 352, 353) granting safe-conduct to Ector de Pontbrent, George de Dunberre and his family and Alexander Gourley.

Protection with clause volumus, for one year, for John Stafford, esquire, going on the king's service and in his company to Scotland. By K.

Protection, for one year, for Francis de Florencia, of the order of Friars Minor, who has entered the realm to prosecute certain business of his concerning the superior of his order and to attend the schools in the University of Oxford. By K.

Pardon to Bernard Brabanor, 'webster,' for all offences committed by him before the Purification except murders and rapes, provided that he be not a common thief or approver, charged with the death of a man or taken with booty, has not broken prison and was not at the murder of the king's uncle the duke of Gloucester. By K.

Grant to William Rolleston, William Ythome and Stephen Coppandale of Beverley, in repayment of 100l. lent by them to the king for the expenses of his household in his present journey to Scotland and delivered to him in person, that they shall have payment of the same from the customs and subsidy of wools, hides and wool-fells shipped in their names in the port of Kingston on Hull.

The like for the following:

John Kolk and William Byrne of Beverley for 100l. in the said port. By K.

John Grene of Grantham for 100l. in the port of Boston. By K.

The mayor, bailiffs and good men of Coventre for 300l. in the port of London. By K.

William Spencer of Leyeestre for 20l. in the port of London. By K.

Pardon to John Edysdon, charged with having with others on Monday before the Exaltation of the Cross, 21 Richard II, stolen a mare (jumentum) worth 13s. 4d. of the goods of William Haron at Denilton and with