Presentation of Robert Bush, parson of the church of St. Stephen, Walbrook, London, in the diocese of London, to the church of Gussyeh St. Michael, in the diocese of Salisbury, in the king's gift by reason of the temporalities of the alien abbey of Tire being in his hands on account of the war with France, on an exchange of benefices with John Beechfont.

Whereas John James of Watton was lately outlawed at the suit of Robert Marny, 'chivaler,' father of William Marny, 'chivaler,' on a plea of debt and caused to be forged a false obligation of 600 marks sealed with a counterfeit of the seal of the said Robert, and by pretext of the outlawry and of an inquisition taken ex-officio before the escheator of Richard II by enemies of Robert, the said escheator certified to the Exchequer that the said sum was due to the said king, and subsequently the said Robert was admitted to traverse the inquisition and after the process was continued in the Exchequer at length it was found by an inquisition maliciously procured by the lady of Molyne and other enemies of the said Robert proposing to have the sum of the grant of the said king that the obligation was made by the said Robert and judgment was given against him that the sum should be paid by instalments, and 100 marks remain unpaid; the king grants the said 100 marks to Elizabeth the wife of the said William.

Grant for life to the king's servant Thomas Dalowe of 10l. yearly from the issues of the petty custom in the port of London.

Licence for Walter Romeseye, 'chivaler,' to enfeoff John Dekene, John Faunleroy, John Top, chaplain, and John Bopere, chaplain, of the manor of Rokebourn, held in chief, except an acre of land in it, and for these to regrant the same to him and Alice his wife for life with remainders to John de Popham, 'chivaler,' and Isabel his wife, daughter of the said Walter, and the heirs of their bodies, and to the right heirs of Walter.

Grant to the mayor, bailiffs and commonalty of Dublin in Ireland, in consideration of their great burdens, that for two years they shall be quit of 100 marks from the 200 marks which they are bound to render yearly for the farm of the city at the exchequer of Ireland.

Grant, with the assent of the council, to the king's esquire John Doreward and his heirs and assigns of the advowson and patronage of the chapel or hospital of Crowechirche in Colcestre, co. Essex, forfeited to the king for certain causes, which used to pertain to his manor of Staneway and do not exceed the value of 100s. yearly, notwithstanding that he has for life of the king's grant 35l. from the fee-farm of the town of Colcestre.

Licence, for his good service in Scotland and elsewhere, for Peter Holt, prior of the Hospital of St. John of Jerusalem in Ireland, to stay in England or elsewhere on the business of himself and the king until the feast of SS. Philip and James next and have to his own use all revenues, lands, rents, services, possessions and advowsons with all profits and goods pertaining to the hospital; and pardon to him of all issues of two parts of the premises received by him and pertaining to the king by his absence from the feast of St. Katharine the Virgin, 20 Richard II, until the present.
