granted to William de Arrundell, 'chivaler,' now deceased, and John Pygot, clerk, the elder, the custody of the alien priory of Tywardrath, co.
Cornwall, during the war, rendering 116l. 13s. 4d. yearly at the Exchequer, and the king on 19 March last by letters patent granted restoration of the priory to John Maslyn, monk, and afterwards John Arrundell, 'chivaler,' then sheriff of the county, was charged on his account with levying 88l. 6s. 7d. from the said farm before the said 19 March from John Herle of the said county, 'chivaler,' Alan Waldyeve of the county of Warwick, Thomas Newemonte of the county of Essex and John Warrewyk of the county of Northampton, mainperners of the said William and John: the king at the supplication of Agnes, late the wife of the said William and executrix of his will, pardons to the said William and John and their heirs, executors, tenants and mainperners the said sum of 88l. 6s. 7d. in aid of the payment of 88l. in which the said William bound himself to Laurence atte Wode, Geoffrey Dune and John Westecote of Maideston, stone cutters, for the making of a parcel of a wall around the town of Kochester beyond the moynes given by the said late king and the king's father and certain other lords for the same, which parcel the said William made by command of the said king and the king's father.
