Membrane 22—cont.

Grant for life to the king’s servant John Braye of 10l. yearly from 14 November, 1 Henry IV, from the petty custom in the port of the city of London, in lieu of a like grant from the petty custom of the city of London by letters patent, surrendered. By p.s.

Exemplification, at the request of John Bore, of the tenour of the enrolment of letters patent dated 21 December, 19 Richard II, presenting him to the church of Oundell, in the diocese of Lincoln.

MEMBRANE 21.

Nov. 20. Westminster.

Inspeximus and confirmation to the prior and canons of Brydlyngton of a charter dated at Westminster, 2 March, 15 Richard II [Charter Roll, 15-17 Richard II, No. 26], inspecting and confirming with additions the following:

1. A charter dated at York, 23 February, 5 Edward II [Charter Roll, 5 Edward II, No. 19], inspecting and confirming the following:
   a. A charter of Henry I dated at York.
   b. Another charter of the same. [Monasticon.]
   c. Letters patent of Stephen. [Ibid.]
   d. A charter dated at Integershall, 6 December, 2 John.
   e. A charter of Henry II dated at Waltham. [Ibid.]
   f. A charter of John son of John de Harpham. [Ibid.]
   g. A charter of R. son of Hermes. [Ibid.]
   h. Letters patent dated 16 June, 36 Edward I.
   i. A charter of Walter de Ver, son of Adam de Gousle. [Ibid.]

For 4 marks paid in the hanaper.

MEMBRANE 20.

Nov. 28. Westminster.

Pardon to Thomas Merk, late bishop of Carlisle, who was indicted with others, condemned to death, with having conspired at London and elsewhere to destroy the king and with having been leaders with Thomas Blount, ‘chivaler,’ Benedict Sely, ‘chivaler,’ and other traitors, convicted of the said treasons before the king at Oxford and condemned to death because with the said traitors and others they leagued themselves with the king’s enemy of France to introduce him into the realm and on Tuesday, the feast of the Epiphany last, at Bampton, co. Oxford, Wantynge, Farendon and Circestre and divers other places within the realm rose in insurrection with standard unfurled and schemed to kill the king at Wymbesore or elsewhere on Monday, the vigil of the Epiphany, and took divers of the king’s lieges prisoners and compelled Walter Hangerford, the king’s knight, to go with them and robbed him of the king’s livery called ‘colera,’ which he was wearing, worth 20l., and divers other lieges of the king of divers goods and caused a proclamation to be made at Wantynge and divers other places that all men should hold Richard II for king. The said late bishop asserted that he was not guilty and put himself on an inquisition, by which he was found guilty. [Pachera.] By K.

General pardon to Walter le Goldesmyth of Chester. By p.s.

The like to the following:

Thomas le Tailour of Swetenham, co. Chester.

Ranulph son of Ranulph le Maynmarynge of the county of Chester.