in chief, to the abbot and convent of Kirkested in aid of their maintenance, and for the latter to appropriate the church in mortmain and serve it by a chaplain, monk or secular.

By K.

Exemplification, at the request of Almarie Bynart alias Tourville, of the tenour of the enrolment of letters patent dated 17 September, 1 Henry IV, granting to him 10 marks yearly during pleasure. He has made oath in Chancery that the mandate lost and will be surrendered if found.

By K.

Pardon to Joan, countess of Kent, late the wife of Thomas, earl of Kent, who made forfeiture to the king, of certain sums demanded from her at the Exchequer by colour of a schedule delivered by John Horyng by the king's mandate to John Norbury, treasurer of England, and delivered by the latter in the Exchequer, viz. 64 marks delivered by his mandate at the hands of the said John Horyng to Edmund brother of the said Thomas for the maintenance of his house and he came from Ireland to England, 6 marks 6s. 8d. delivered by her as a gift to divers servants of the king's son Henry, prince of Wales, and others, 500 marks spent by her and Edmund her brother and their servants in their expenses of shipment from Ireland and divers rewards to her servants in Ireland.
15 marks paid by her chamberlain for divers parcels of her chamber and 12 marks 7s. 10d. delivered by her to divers of her servants for payment in Ireland.

By K.

Inspeccimus and confirmation to Thomas Wylyngham, Nicholas de Wylyngham, Edmund Oldhalle, Ralph Basford, and Stephen Lestwyck, now tenants of the manor, and the heirs of Nicholas of a charter dated at Westminster, 12 November, 30 Edward I, granting to Guy the right that he and his heirs shall have a market and fair at their manor of Upton, co. Norfolk.

For 3 mark paid in the Exchequer.

Grant for life to Eleanor the wife of Nicholas Dagworth, "chivaler, of 10l. yearly at the Exchequer from 31 October, 1 Henry IV, in furtherance of a grant by letters patent of Richard II, and also of the manors of Mans-fold and Lynelby in Shrewsby, co. Nottingham, to the value of 40 marks yearly from 2 Henry IV.

Vacation comes this year.

Mandate to the mayor and bailiffs of Dublin to pay without delay 40 marks to Thomas, archbishop of Dublin, who has shown the king that whence he lately occupied the office of chancellor in Ireland from 30 September, 1 Henry IV, on which day the king undertook the charge of the realm, until 4 January following; viz. for a term of 90 days, and for his hire, he has levied and carries the mayor and commonalty for the the mayor and commonalty they had allowance by colour of letters patent before the Exchequer there, nevertheless to pay by colour of certain letters patent by which on 6 November last after the date of the tally, the king granted to them and the commonalty of the city that they should be quit of 100 marks out of their

By K.

Appointment, for half a year, of William Mounckton to take wines for the expenses of the household and carriage for the same.

By bill of the chief butler.