Membrane 14—cont.

1401.
kingsman Thomas, earl of Worcester, steward, the king’s clerk Thomas More, treasurer, and Thomas Broumfele, controller of the household. Mandate in pursuance to the said Thomas More to collect the said subsidy and apply it as above. By K.

Grant for life to Robert Wythele of 20l. yearly from the issue of the counties of Oxford and Berks, in compensation of the office of rhyglawry and rhyngildry of Turkelyn in Wales, which were granted to him by letters patent of Richard II. surrendered, and which the king’s kinsman Henry de Percy now holds.

May 18. Westminster.
Grant for life to the servant Thomas Portere of 6d. daily from 26 November, 1 Henry IV, from the issues of the counties of Norfolk and Suffolk.

May 3. Westminster.
Whereas Christopher Holywode holds of the king certain lands in Killenyn, Burnne, Stadhamavene, Lisnebyll, Stagheony, Killowen, and Bothurtolyng, co. Dal. [No exchequer record of the below].
The king, being told by William Savage 5 marks yearly for life; the king, and also on the death of William of the said 5 marks.

May 15. Westminster.
Grant for life to William, 6d. daily from 12 November, 1 Henry IV, from the custom of wool, mutes and wool-fells in the port of Kyngeston on Hull; in lieu of a like grant to him from the custom and subsidy of the same by letters patent of that date, surrendered because invalid because the mention of the subsidy was contrary to the ordinance in the last Parliament.

Innsparimus and confirmation to the abbot and convent of the place of St. Edward called Lettele of the following:
1. A charter dated at Norwich, 20 March, 35 Henry III. [Charter Roll, 35 Henry III, m. 10.]
2. A charter dated at Portsmouth, 4 July, 37 Henry III, granting to them in frank almoine 3 carmatics of land of 100 acres each, in the New Forest within specified bounds, with liberty to cultivate the same.
3. A charter dated at Westminster, 12 April, 40 Henry III, granting licence for them to enclose the same against the king’s deer.

Grant for life to the king’s esquire John Blakelet and Margaret late the wife of Roger Horne, the heir about to marry, of 40l. yearly at the manor of Malmeshull, Lacy, co. Hereford, during the minority of the son and heir of Roger, late earl of March, and so from heir to heir.

Grant to the king’s esquire John de Skidmore of 20 marks yearly from the manor of Malmeshull, Lacy, co. Hereford, during the minority of the son and heir of Roger, late earl of March, and so from heir to heir.

May 27. Westminster.
Presentation of John Harle to the church of Farmham by Stratford, in the diocese of London.