2 HENRY IV.—PART IV.

MEMBRANE 19.

Licence, for 10 marks paid by him in the hanaper, for Reginald Traily of the county of Bedford to eneoff Gerard Draybrook, 'chivaler,' the younger, Thomas Peyre, Edmund Hampden, John Hervey, John Warde, parson of the church of Northwold, and John Hortesborn of his manor of Northwold, except one acre of land in it which the king wishes to be reserved, to Reginald may be his tenant, and the advowson of the church of the same town, held in chief.

Whereas on 10 September, 1 Henry IV (see p. 333), the king granted to John do Elvet the custody of certain possessions, and these letters patent are invalid because no mention is made of the value of the premises or of previous grants to him; the king pardons to him the misprision and trespass in this and grants to him the custody, of the value of 24l., from that date.

By K.

Mandate to all sheriffs and others in Ireland not to molest John de Stanley, 'chivaler,' late lieutenant of Ireland, to whom certain sums of money are due by the king for the custody of that land for the time when he was lieutenant, so that he cannot pay his own debts there for his expenses, as the king, with the assent of the council, wishes that these debts shall be respited until Christmas.

By p.s.

Pardon to John Warde, late servant of the prior of Pontefract, 'carter,' indicted for having on Saturday before St. Swithun, 1 Henry IV, at Overkellet stolen a horse worth 12s. of the goods and chattels of John Comyn of Overkellet.

By p.s.

Presentation of Thomas Bradle, chaplain, to the vicarage of the church of Wylyndon by Borne, in the diocese of Chichester, void by the resignation of Richard Elyngton.

By p.s.

Pardon to the king's son Henry, prince of Wales, of the 200l. which were paid by the king to him in the month of May last and delivered to his esquire Robert Castill to take to him.

By p.s.

Grant for life to the king's knight Hugh le Despenser of the 100l. yearly which the mayor and commonalty of Bristol render yearly at the Exchequer for the farm of the town, in recompense of an annuity of 100l. from the custom and subsidy in the port of Lenn, granted to him by letters patent, surrendered.

By p.s.

Revocation of the protection with clause volumus, for one year, lately granted by letters patent to Gerard Salvayn, knight, going on the king's service in the company of Henry de Percy, keeper of the town and castle of Berwick on Tweed, on the safe custody of the same, because he delays in the county of York, as the sheriff has certified.

By p.s.

Grant for life to the king's esquire Thomas Lauton of 20l. yearly from 11 March, 1 Henry IV, from the petty custom in the port of Southmead; in lieu of a grant to him by letters patent of that date (see p. 250), surrendered because invalid because it is not mentioned that he is to receive the 20l. yearly from the custom and subsidy of wools, hides and
