Membrane 14—cont.

which Thomas Mewes lately had, with profits and commodities to the value of 100s. yearly, provided that he answer for any surplus. By p.s.

Licence, for 20l. paid by them to the king, for the abbot and convent of Pippewell to appropriate in mortmain the church of Eltyngdon, which is of their own advowson.

Grant for six years to the citizens of Winchester, for the good of the city and the repair of its walls, that they shall have allowance in the Exchequer of 40 marks from the fee-farm of 100 marks which they are bound to pay yearly.

Grant for life to the king's knight William Lyle the younger of two tunns of wine yearly from the prize of the king's wines in the port of London, he paying to the chief butler for the king's use the accustomed price.

Grant for life, with the assent of the council, to the king's servant Maurice Ahergewayn, one of the yeomen of the king's chamber, of 6d. daily from the issues of the county of Essex.

Presentation of John Moryn, parson of the church of Quenayton, to the church of Haustele Marchal, in the diocese of Salisbury, on an exchange of benefices with John Chamberley.

April 11. Westminster.

Grant to the king's knight Richard Redman and his heirs of all lands late of Richard II in the town of Blencogo, not exceeding the value of 10l. yearly, which he had for life by letters patent of Richard II, confirmed by the king.

Grant for life to Richard Was, for his good service to the king after he last put in to England, of a messuage in Thriske, not exceeding the value of 1s. yearly, which was forfeited by one Thomas Chamberley because he adhered to the Scots and which one Joan Walker holds at present, render to the escheator in the county of York the said 1s. yearly, to hold to the said value, provided that he answer for any surplus. By p.s.

MEMBRANE 13.

Grant for life to the king's servant William Hiton of 6d. daily at the Exchequer.

Like grants of 4d. daily to the following:

John de Hiton.
Thomas Forster.

Licence, at the supplication of John, bishop of St. Asaph, who cannot maintain his episcopal state as in times past, for the bishops of Hereford, Volterra and Bangor to grant the parish church of Meyvoth with the chapels of Pole and Keygwy, in the diocese of St. Asaph, to him to hold in commendam so long as he is bishop, in accordance with bulls of the pope. [Endea.] By p.s.

Whereas lately after the marriage of John Grandbye of Coventre and Agnes his wife sister of William de Forby, clerk, deceased, who made forfeiture to the king on account of a judgement against him, the said William was seized in fee simple of all lands, rents, services, meadows,