

1401.

Membrane 8—cont.

the office of wapentake, notwithstanding that the king when earl of Derby granted to him 4 marks yearly for life at the hands of his receiver general.

By p.s.

Sept. 5.
Westminster.

Grant for life to William Roker, who has become so languid that he cannot serve the king, of 10*l.* yearly from the issues of the petty custom of the port of Calais.

By p.s.

Sept. 12.
Westminster.

Presentation of John Dodde, parson of the church of Brantefeld, in the diocese of Lincoln, to the vicarage of the church of Everton, in the same diocese, in the king's gift by reason of the temporalities of the alien priory of Okburne being in the king's hands on account of the war with France, on an exchange of benefices with Thomas, late vicar.

July 10.
Westminster.

Commission to R. bishop of Bangor, Masters Thomas Stowe, dean of the church of St. Paul, London, John Prene and Nicholas Risshton, doctors of laws, Master William Stieukeley, advocate of arts, Hugh Huls, knight, Hugh Waterton, knight, William Faryngton, knight, and John Frome, esquire, to proceed in an appeal by William Hert, citizen and 'baker' of London, against a judgement given by William Fulthorpe, lieutenant of the king's kinsman the earl of Northumberland, constable of England, in the king's military court in a cause in which Idonia Hert, executrix of the will of Robert Greneacre, knight, deceased, claimed that he had received from the said Robert at Bordeaux 22 tuns of wine and a sum of gold to the value of 231 marks. Commissioners were appointed by letters patent (see p. 231) to proceed in the appeal, but they dismissed it because the said William could not appear.

By p.s.

Sept. 10.
Westminster.

Licence for Nicholas Bubbewyth, king's clerk, to sue his right in the archdeaconry of Richemund and the prebend of Bool in the Court Christian and elsewhere and continue his possession (as on p. 510).

By p.s.

Sept. 12.
Westminster.

Whereas John Benfeld, William Benfeld his son of the parish of Wonkefeld, Geoffrey Mogonhode of the parish of Cloworth and Walter Dolwyn of the parish of Benfeld lately became pledges of one Stephen Taillour of Warefeld and they and Stephen bound themselves in 40*l.* in the court of the Marshalsea that he and his friends would keep the peace towards John Strete and his friends, and he and others lay in wait for the said John Strete by his lodger and wounded him, so that the penalty of the obligation has been incurred; the king grants to his servants Henry Cawode, Andrew Dirham, John Cateby and Fithian Masey, yeomen of the kitchen, the said 40*l.*

By p.s.

Sept. 17.
Westminster.

Presentation of John Pekke, king's clerk, to the church of St. Mary, Wolcherche, London, in the diocese of London.

Sept. 6.
Westminster.

Whereas time out of mind the inhabitants of the town of Gravenede have been accustomed to ship in their own vessels all persons coming to the town and wishing to go from thence to the city of London by water until lately certain persons of the city have come with their own vessels to the town and there shipped persons to the city and converted the moneys received to their own use, the king grants to the inhabitants of the town and their heirs and successors that they may ship in their own vessels all persons coming to the town and wishing to go to the city by water, receiving as much from each person as in times past.

By p.s.

Sept. 18.
Westminster.

Pardon to Robert Persiour of Makesey for the death of Alan Lortimer at Makesey on Sunday before the Exaltation of the Cross, 1 Henry IV.