Membrane 29—cont.

1401.
Oct. 30.
Westminster.

Grant for life to the king's servant John Fouler, clerk of the king's chief butler, of a yearly rent of 100s. at the Exchequer and 7½d. daily for his wages within the household and without at the hands of the treasurer of the household, in lieu of like grants to John Wyche of Hereford and Richard Crowe respectively, by letters patent of Richard II., surrendered; and grant to him also for life of 100s. yearly at the Exchequer. By p.s.

Nov. 7.
Westminster.

Grant to the king's kinsman Thomas Montagu, son of John, late earl of Salisbury, to whom on 20 March last, with the assent of the council, the king granted the manors of Crokham, co. Berks, Warblington, More and Hunton, co. Southampton, Knolle, co. Somerset, and Pyworthy, Okford and Seinte Marie Clist, co. Devon, in aid of his maintenance during his minority to the value of 100l. yearly, which manors are extended at 106½. 6s. 8d. yearly, of the said surplus of 6½. 6s. 8d. yearly from the said 20 March. By p.s.

Nov. 5.
Westminster.

Whereas lately the king granted licence for Thomas Merk, doctor in theology, late bishop of Carlisle, translated by the pope to the church of Salmeston, in which there are no clergy or Christian people, to obtain benefices from the pope in the court of Rome to the value of 100 marks yearly, bishoprics excepted, and the pope, in consideration of his episcopal dignity and his poverty, has granted to him graces and expectations of benefices within the realm to the sum of 300 marks yearly: the king, at the supplication of the said Thomas, pardons him all misprision in this and grants licence for him to execute the same. By K.

Nov. 10.
Westminster.

Grant for life to the king's esquire Thomas Wissenden, in lieu of a grant to him of the office of clerk of the works of the town of Calais and the marches there to be occupied in person by letters patent, surrendered, of the same office to be occupied by himself or a sufficient deputy, with the due wages, commodities and profits and with the supervision of the carpenters, masons and other workmen.

By p.s.

Nov. 6.
Westminster.

Grant to Robert Mascal of the order of Friars Carmelites, the king's confessor, whom the king has charged to stay continually about his person for the safety of his soul, for the maintenance of himself and his fellow and his men and servants within the household and four horses and one 'hakeney,' of 3s. daily, amounting to 54l. 12s. yearly, for the wages of each of four grooms keeping the horses 1½d. daily, amounting to 9½. 2s. 6d. yearly, and for other small necessaries 116½. yearly, all of which sums amount to 69l. 10s. 6d. yearly, to be received yearly at the Exchequer from the day of the coronation so long as he shall be the king's confessor, as William Syward, confessor of Edward III., had. [Faderia.]

By K.

Nov. 9.
Westminster.

Grant for life to the king's esquire David Gamm of all lands late of Rees Vaghyan ap Rees Lloio, Morgan ap D'd Vaghyan, D'd ap Hoel Thee, Greg af Hoel ap Madoc, Jevan ap Meur' Vaghyan, Greg af M'cVaghyan, Jevan ap Cadogan Lloio, Jevan ap Morgan ap Jevan ap D'd, Greg af Jevan ap Ph', Gruff af Gylllym ap Greg Bengefhz, Jevan ap Gr' Gruge, D'd Deloynezor, Robert ap Li' Gouz, D'd ap Jevan ap Treharne, Cadogan ap Joverth, Madoc Thee ap Jevan ap Gr', Hoel ap Jevan ap Greg of the commotes of Maynordilo, Mallaen, Cio and Mabelvev, co. Caermarthen, and D'd Parke en Michelcarev within the lordship of Dynas, forfeited to the king because they rose against him, to hold to the value of 20l. yearly.

By p.s. [2900.]