Licence for the alienation in mortmain to the abbot and convent of St. Augustine's, Canterbury, by William Compes and John Bernesole of Canterbury of a messuage in the town of Fordwich, which is a member of the Cinque Ports, held of the abbot and worth 4s. yearly, as appears by an inquisition taken before Robert de Berneye, knight, lieutenant of Thomas de Erpyngham, knight, constable of Dover Castle and warden of the Cinque Ports, to hold to the value of 5 marks yearly in part satisfaction of a licence by letters patent of Richard II.

Whereas the abbey of Bermondsey, which is of the foundation of the king's progenitors and of the king's patronage, through bad government in the time when John Attelburgh was abbot, was charged with many pensions and corrodies and great debts and divers of its manors, lordships, lands, possessions and churches were indiscreetly demised at farm and otherwise alienated by the said John, the king has taken into his hands the abbey with all things pertaining to it and the said pensions, corrodies and farms and has committed the custody of the abbey and all its possessions to Master Robert Halun, the king's clerk, Nicholas Bubewyth, Nicholas Carrowe, Thomas Rmys and John Butiller, so that all issues beyond the necessary maintenance of the abbey and monks and their servants shall be applied to the relief of the abbey and the said pensions, corrodies and farms shall cease until the abbey be cleared of debt, and has granted protection with clause noniamus.

The like for the priory of Coventre, committed to the custody of the abbey of Leycestre, the king's clerk Thomas de Stanley, keeper of the rolls of Chancery, and Thomas Seyvill, serjeant at arms. By K. in Parl. Vacated because nothing was done thereon.

Insperimus and confirmation to John Melton, 'chivaler,' kinsman and heir of the undermentioned Maud, and his heirs of letters patent dated 2 November, 7 Richard II, inspecting and confirming to the said Maud, sister and heir of Antony son and heir of Thomas de Lucy and wife of Henry de Percy, earl of Northumberland, and her heirs letters patent dated 20 March, 18 Edward III, granting to the said Thomas and his heirs 50l. yearly at the Exchequer.
