Grant, during pleasure, that all burgesses of the king’s borough of Brehennok in Wales dwelling within the walls of the borough shall be quit of toll, murage, picage, pavage, stallage and all other prest for their merchandise throughout the realm and in the lands of Aquitaine, Ireland and Wales; as lately many burgesses have dwelt without the walls and so the borough within the walls has deteriorated.

By p.s. and for 5 marks paid in the hanaper.

Presentation of John Pocche to the church of Comberton, in the diocese of Worcester, in the king’s gift by reason of his custody of the land and heir of Thomas, late earl of Warwick, tenant in chief.

Grant to the king’s servant William Somercoates, one of the servants of the king’s son the prince, of the offices of keeper of the parks of Mersshewodevale and the bailiwick of the hundred of Whitchurch, co. Dorset, during the minority of Edmund son and heir of Roger, late earl of March, with the due wages, fees and profits.

Whereas the king granted for life to Maud, late the wife of John, late earl of Salisbury, by letters patent on 28 February, 1 Henry IV, the manor of Stokenham, co. Devon, with the hundred called Colrigge and the free borough of Chedlington, worth 100l. yearly as was said, and on 27 November, 2 Henry IV, the manor of Whitchurch, co. Devon, to the value of 80l. yearly, and now she has shown the king that the premises are extended at 123l. and 80l. 18s. respectively; he grants to her for life the surplus, amounting to 23l. 18s.

Grant for life to the king’s esquire Thomas Sy, in lieu of a grant to him by letters patent dated 0 December, 1 Henry IV, surrendered, of the office of verger or usher of the company of ‘la Gartier’ within the castle of Wyndesore with a mansion within the castle, viz. to bear the rod before the king in procession on feast days as Walter Whithors, then usher of the free chapel of Wyndesore, bore it in the presence of Edward III, receiving such wages from the issues of the manor of Coldekenyngton, co. Middlesex, as the said Walter had at the Exchequer, with the custody of the mantles of the company and the black rod and all other due fees and profits.

Grant for life to John Hobildod, late esquire of John de Holand, earl of Huntyngdon, of 20l. yearly at the Exchequer; in lieu of grants to him for life by the said earl of 20 marks yearly from the issues of the castle of Coneway and 10 marks yearly at the hands of his treasurer by letters patent surrendered.

Vacated by surrender and cancelled, because on 19 February in the ninth year the king granted the same to him from the issues of the manor of Cesterton, co. Cambridge.

Pardon to John Smyth of Shaldeford, bailiff of the manor of Shaldeford, co. Essex, for having on Saturday, St. Valentine, 1 Henry IV, in the town of Shaldeford in a field called ‘Swetynggeslond’ of the demesne of the lord of Scales in self-defence killed Nicholas Buk of Shaldeford.

Mandate to the escheator in the county of Sussex for the restitution of the temporalities of the monastery of St. Albans, immediately subject to the Roman church, to William Hetheworth, cellarer of the monastery, elected abbot on the death of John Moot, as in accordance with an indulgton of the apostolic see, granted at the supplication of Richard II, no confirmation is required.