Membrane 15—cont.

Grant for life to the king’s servant John Power of 100l. yearly at the hands of the abbot and convent of St. Albans from the yearly sum which they are bound to render to the king by reason of the voidance of the abbey; in recompense of 100l. yearly at the Exchequer granted to him by letters patent, surrendered.

Vacated by surrender and cancelled, because the king granted the same to him at the Exchequer on 8 December in the seventh year.

John Welyngton, prior of Lanthony Prima in Wales, going by the king’s licence to Ireland, has letters nominating Hugh Harper, chaplain, and William Harper his attorneys in England for one year.

The prior of Wormesleye received the attorneys by writ.

Presentation of William Bryscowe to the church of Egremound, in the diocese of York and of the immediate jurisdiction of the archdeacon of Richmond, in the king’s gift by reason of the temporalities of the abbey of St. Mary, York, being lately in the hands of Richard II.

John Middelton, citizen and mercer of London, staying in England, has letters nominating Richard Onley and William Sloley his attorneys in Ireland for three years.

John Rome, clerk, received the attorneys until his advent into Ireland.

Commission to Thomas Chillynden, prior of Christ Church, Canterbury, John Norbury, esquire, John Scarle, Thomas de Stanley, Nicholas Bubbewyth, John Ikelyngton, Thomas Overton and Master John Hoke, clerks, of the custody of the abbey of Lesenes, founded in honour of St. Thomas Martyr and of the patronage of the king’s kinsman Edmund, earl of March, a minor and in the king’s custody, which by the bad governance of certain late abbots has been charged with many pensions and corrodies and debts and many of the possessions of which have been indiscreetly demised at farm and otherwise alienated, and its possessions, so that all issues beyond the necessary maintenance of the abbot and canons and their servants shall be applied to the relief of the abbey and the pensions, corrodies and farms shall cease until the abbey be cleared of debt, and grant of protection with clause volumus.

Protection with clause volumus, for one year, for John de Stanleye, knight, going on the king’s service in the company of the king’s son Thomas de Lancaster, lieutenant of Ireland, on the safe-custody of that land.

Grant for life to the king’s esquire Morgan ap David ap Hoel, in lieu of a grant to him for life of 20l. yearly from the lands late of Philip ap Rederch and Rederch ap Meredith of the county of Cardigan by letters patent dated 9 November last, surrendered, of 20l. yearly from the said lands from that date, provided that he be intendant when required in his own person on the king and his son the prince of Wales and his heirs and lieutenants and justices in Wales for the defence and good governance of the same and the resistance of the king’s enemies.

Reginald Grey of Ruthyn, knight, staying in England, has letters nominating Robert Sutton and John Cok, esquire, his attorneys in Ireland for one year.

John Rome, clerk, received the attorneys until his advent into Ireland.
