Membrane 11—cont.

1402. ships, barges or vessels of any merchants of the king's friendship except in the ports where they were unloaded, because the king's kinsman Thomas Preece, earl of Worcester, has the lordship of Haverford with royal liberties and all other rights and appurtenances for life of the grant of the said king and the king's confirmation and by reason of this the prise and custom of wines in the said port of Mylford pertain to him, and the said ordinance does not extend to Wales, the king wishes that he shall have the prizes and customs of wines in the said port as the king's uncle Edward, late prince of Wales, had in right of the same lordship.

Feb. 21. Westminster. Presentation of William Islep to the church of Bereford alias Berkford, in the diocese of Lincoln.

Feb. 23. Westminster. Whereas the pope has made provision to Henry Chichele, doctor of laws, of a canonry, prebend and dignity in the cathedral church of Salisbury, a canonry and prebend in the conventual church of Shaftesbury and a canonry in the conventual church of Wilton, in the diocese of Salisbury, the king pardons the contempts, trespasses and misprisions in this and grants licence for the execution of the bulls, notwithstanding the statute of provisors, 13 Richard II. By p.s.

Feb. 27. Westminster. Commission, during pleasure, to Henry, bishop of Bath and Wells, of the office of treasurer of the Exchequer, receiving the accustomed fees. By K.

Feb. 21. Westminster. Grant for life to the king's esquire Richard Mawdlyn of 10l. yearly from 16 October, 1 Henry IV, and 20l. yearly from 13 March, 1 Henry IV, from the issues of the county of Wilts, in lieu of like grants to him by letters patent of those dates, surrendered because no mention is made in them of previous grants and so no allowance can be made to the sheriffs in the Exchequer for payment; and grant that the sheriffs shall have allowance in the Exchequer for all sums thus paid to him. By p.s. Vacated by surrender and cancelled, because on 21 April in the sixth year the king granted to him the manor of Tyleshide, co. Wilts, with all lands, rents and possessions belonging to it during the war with France.

March 2. Westminster. Commission, during pleasure, to Reginald Curtoys, esquire, to take barley, malt, wheat, beans, peas and other victuals for the munition and garnishing of the castle of Dover and ships, vessels and other carriage for the same in any counties of the realm, with power to resist and imprison all who oppose him. MEMBRANE 10.

Feb. 26. Westminster. Whereas on 10 May, [1] Henry IV, by letters patent the king granted for life to his servants Robert del Garderobe, groom of his robes, and Thomas Godgrome, groom of his beds, 10l. yearly from the issues of the manor of Shene, and the letters are invalid and have been surrendered because mention is not made in them of an annuity of 5 marks granted for life to the said Robert by the name of Robert Clerk, groom of the robes, from the issues of the honour of Leycestre by the king when he was duke of Lancaster and an annuity of 20s. granted for life to the said Thomas by the name of Thomas Goodboy from the issues of the manor of Bray and the office of keeper of the gaol of Yvelchestre, co. Somerset, not exceeding the value of 40l. yearly, granted to him for life by Richard II, and confirmed by the king; the king pardons the trespasses and misprisions in this and grants that they shall have the said 10l. from the said 10 May.
