1402.
March 7.
Westminster.

Whereas the pope made provision to Richard Holm, clerk, of a canony under the expectation of a prebend, dignity, parsonage or office with or without a cure in the church of Lincoln, the king pardons the trespass and grants licence for the execution of the bull.

By K.

Jan. 31.
Westminster.

Whereas, for the quelling of dissensions between John, bishop of Ely, and Master John Welbourne, archdeacon of Ely, and their predecessors concerning the exercise of ecclesiastical jurisdiction in the city and isle and elsewhere in the diocese of Ely, the archbishop of Canterbury by virtue of a submission made to him by them lately in his visitation there decreed that the bishop and his successors should have all ecclesiastical jurisdiction in the city and certain other places and certain spiritual jurisdiction in the residue of the diocese, and in recompense he should unite to the archdeaconry the parish church of Hadenham, the church and archdeaconry being both of his patronage; the king grants licence for the union and releases all his right to the bishop and archdeacon and their successors. [Pædera.] By K. and for 200£, paid in the hamper.

March 10.
Westminster.

Pardon to Henry Hardyng son of William de Hardyng of Abyndon, for the death of John Skynner, servant of William Hardyng of Abyndon, at Esthamney on Thursday, St. Katharine the Virgin, 2 Henry IV.

By p.s.

March 10.
Westminster.

Grant, by the advice of the council, to Gawyn de Dunbarre son of the earl of March of Scotland, whom the king has retained for life, of 40£ yearly at the Exchequer until the king shall make other ordination for his estate. [Pædera.]

By p.s.

March 31.
Westminster.

Pardon, out of reverence for Good Friday (diei veneris adorati) last, to Isabel the wife of Richard atte Welle, 'tapicer,' for the death of Robert Tarlton in the parish of St. Mary, Fauchirche, in the ward of Langborne, London, on Monday, St. Luke Evangelist, 2 Henry IV.

By p.s.

MEMBRANE 7.

March 19.
Westminster.

Pardon to John Colfyn of Northampton, for all felonies committed by him, except treason, murder and rape, and of all abjuration of the realm made on account of these.

By p.s.

March 17.
Westminster.

Grant for life to the king's esquire John de Merbury, for his good service to the king and his son the prince, of the manor of Llanfrit, co. Cardigan, and all lands in the commotes of Aumhunyat, Mevenyd and Kruddyn late of Rees a 40£ ap Cadogan, forfeited to the king because he rose in insurrection, not exceeding the value of 40£ of rent yearly, to hold of the prince provided that any surplus be answered for to the latter at his exchequer of Kermerdyn which the king granted to him in support of his charges on the safe-custody and rule of the parts of Wales and the resistance of the rebels there, notwithstanding that the said John has for life 10 marks yearly from the issues of the castle of Halton of the grant of the king's father and 20£ from the fee-farm of the city of Hereford of the king's grant, and so that he be always intendant in person on the king and prince and the lieutenants and justices of Wales for the defence and good governance of the same and the resistance of the rebels.

By p.s.