Grant to the king's servant John Crosseby, one of the yeomen of the king's chamber, of the custody of Joan the daughter and heiress of John Jurdan, late fishmonger of London, with the profits of all lands within that city in the king's hands because she is an idiot, for such time as these remain in the king's hands, as John Caterton and Petronilla his wife had of the grant of Richard II, to the value of 20 marks yearly, so that he find a reasonable sustenance for the said Joan, maintain the houses, buildings, woods, enclosures and gardens and support all charges without waste and answer for any surplus.

Vacated by surrender and cancelled, because on 17 April in his fifth year Henry V granted to him 6l. yearly for life from the fee farm of the town of Coventre at the hands of the prior of the town.

Whereas the pope made a grace and provision to William Feryby, chaplain, master in arts and bachelor in canon law, of certain dignities and prebends in the cathedral churches of York and Lincoln and the collegiate church of Beverley, the king pardons the obtaining of the bull and grants licence for its execution.

Inspectorius and confirmation to Elizabeth de Stafford, kinswoman and heiress of Richard Danyel and Robert Turvill, of letters patent dated 6 February, 1 Richard II, inspecting and confirming a charter dated at Langley, 8 May, 33 Edward I [Charter Roll, 33 Edward I, No. 37], inspecting and confirming the following:

2. A charter dated at Westminster, 13 February, 11 Henry III.

Licence for the king's kinsman Thomas de Percy, earl of Worcester, to buy 400 quarters of wheat in Ireland and take the same to South Wales for the victualing of the castles and fortalices there without payment of custom or subsidy.

Grant for life to Walter ap Eynon, in lieu of a grant to him by letters patent dated 23 November last (see p. 22), surrendered, of the lands there mentioned to hold of the king's son and his heirs the princes of Wales to the value of 10 marks yearly, so that any surplus be answered for to the king's son at his exchequer of Kermerdyne and provided that the said Walter be intendant in person etc.

The like to the king's esquire David Gam, in lieu of a grant to him by letters patent dated 9 November last (see p. 11), surrendered, of the lands there mentioned to the value of 20l. yearly.

Presentation of John Bakby, chaplain, to the church of St. Giles, Wynchelse, in the diocese of Chichester.

Grant to William de Lee, 'chivaler,' of 40 marks yearly at the Exchequer until the king shall order otherwise for his estate.

Inspectorius and confirmation to John Steven, esquire, of letters patent of the king's kinsman William de Bello Campo, lord of Pembroke and Bergeveny, dated at Caermarthen, 12 October, 2 Henry IV, appointing the said John, by the name of John Stephen, constable of the castle and town of Teneby for his own life, receiving the accustomed wages and fees; and grant, with the assent of the council, of the said office to him for life, receiving the accustomed wages, viz. 2d. daily with the due fees and other profits and commodities.