
Grant for life to the king's esquire John Merbury, who has married Alice Oldecastell of the county of Hereford, of 10 marks yearly at the Exchequer, notwithstanding that he has 10 marks yearly from the lordship of Halton, co. Chester, of the grant of the king's father and the king's confirmation.

By C.

Licence for the sub-prior and convent of Kyme to elect a prior in the place of Thomas de Bykyre, deceased.

By p.s.

Grant to John Wodecook, citizen and mercer of London, and Thomas Due, citizen and skinner of London, who have lent to the king divers sums of money for the wars of Ireland, for which payment cannot at present be made, that in part payment they may collect the sum of £46l. 9s. 6d. from the custom and subsidy of wools, hides and wool-fells in the port of Chichester by view and testimony of the collectors and controllers.

By C.

Licence for John Gowayn, John Wykyng and Walter Hert, chaplain, to grant in mortmain to the prior and convent of the house of leprous women of St. Mary, Maydonbradelegh, a toft, 26 acres of land, 4 acres of meadow, 40 acres of pasture and 18 acres of wood in Hulle Deverell, not held in chief, worth £3s. 4d. yearly, as appears by an inquisition taken by Nicholas Bray of Andevere, escheator in the county of Wilts, and the reversion on the death of Thomas Brys the elder of a messuage and 2 acres of land in Maydenbradelegh and Vernefeld, not held in chief, worth 3s. yearly, as appears by the same inquisition, to hold to the value of £20s. yearly, in part satisfaction of a licence by letters patent of Edward III.

Grant to John Bernard of Offleley, lately pardoned for treason, and Isabel his wife of all the lands in the county of Hertford which they held as of her right before his forfeiture, with all issues of the same and all his goods.

By p.s.

Pardon to Thomas Morelee the younger for having on Saturday after St. James the Apostle, 22 Richard II, stolen 12 ells of russet cloth worth 3s. and a saddle with a bridle worth 7s. from Thomas Jonson at Brighton on the feast of St. Martin, 19 Richard II, of which he was indicted before the justices of the peace in the county of Carlisle at Egremont; and for all other felonies and trespasses committed by him except treasons, murders and rapes.

By p.s.

Pardon to Hugh Berughby, indicted of having on Monday after the Exaltation of the Cross, 22 Richard II, stolen a 'bay' horse from William Radburn of Bennewell, worth 20s., in the field of Armeston, and of being a common thief and highwayman.

By p.s.

Grant for life to John Actoun of the office of constable of the castle of Shrewsbury, void by the death of Thomas Hynkaley, with the due fees and profits.

By p.s.