

.1402.

Membrane 27—cont.

armour and find security and take oath that as far as they can they will bring their captains and leaders before the king or his son the prince of Wales or any lieutenant of his in Wales or the marches, and to punish all sending victuals to the rebels; and with order de intendendo in pursuance directed to the sheriffs and others in the counties of Salop and Stafford and the adjoining parts. By K.

The like of Edmund, earl of Stafford, as lieutenant from Wygemore to Chepstowe; with the clause de intendendo to the sheriffs of Gloucester, Hereford, Worcester and Oxford.

Aug. 5.
Ravensdale Manor.

Order to the mayor of Suthampton and the collectors of the customs and subsidies and the searcher in the port of the town to deliver to John de Pulle, 'chivaler,' a ship of his called la Marie de Pulle, of which John Lenn is master, laden with divers goods and merchandise of the said John Pulle and John Coly, which has been seized by them in the said port, and to certify thereon to the king and council by the quinzaine of Michaelmas next; as the said John Pulle has personally made mainprise before the king under penalty of 100*l.* to appear before the king and council then to satisfy the king of the forfeiture of the said ship, goods and merchandise if they be adjudged to the king. By K.

July 23.
Lilleshull.

Licence for the good men of the town of Leomynstre, which is situated on the frontiers of the marches of Wales, to fortify the town with walls, pales and ditches, for defence against the Welsh rebels, and to compel all the men of the town to contribute to the expense according to their means. By K.

MEMBRANE 26.

Appointment, during pleasure, for the good governance of the marches of South Wales and the adjoining parts, and for the resistance of the malice of the Welsh rebels, of Richard, lord of Grey, to assemble the people of the parts of Breken, the counties of Kermerdyn, Cardican and Pembroke and the ports of Haverford, Roos and St. Davids to war against the rebels as often as shall seem expedient to him; with power to receive into the king's grace any of the rebels, provided that they surrender their arms and armaments and find security and take oath that as far as they can they will bring their captains and leaders before the king or his son the prince of Wales or any lieutenant of his in Wales or the marches, and to punish all sending victuals to the rebels; and with order de intendendo to all of the said parts and counties and the county of Hereford, provided that all the county of Hereford be intendant to the king's kinsman Edmund, earl of Stafford, the king's lieutenant on the frontiers of the marches of Wales from Wygemore to Chepstowe, whenever he shall make a journey against the rebels and shall warn them accordingly. By K.

The like, from 31 July next for a quarter of a year, of the king's kinsman Edward Cherlton of Powys to keep the castle, town and lordship of Pole, and make ordinance for the safe-keeping of the same and the adjoining parts and to assemble the people of the lordship and parts aforesaid as above, provided that all of the county of Salop be intendant as above to the king's kinsman Thomas, earl of Arundel, the king's lieutenant on the frontiers of the marches of Wales from the castle of Holt to Wygemore. By K.