Licence for the king's son Thomas de Lancastre, steward of England, the king's lieutenant in Ireland, to appoint a sufficient deputy to do everything pertaining to the office of lieutenant in Ireland in his absence, according to the tenour of certain indentures between him and the king.

By K. & C.

Pardon to the executors of the will of Edmund, duke of York, of all wastes and stripments committed within the manor and lordship of Eppeworth within the Isle of Axholme at the time when the manor and lordship were in the hands of the duke.

By K.

Pardon to Adam Usk, clerk, for having on Wednesday after All Saints, 2 Henry IV, lain in ambush in the town of Westminster to rob the king's lieges and there stolen a black horse with a saddle and a bridle worth 100s, and 14 marks in money of one Walter Jakes and for being a common thief.

By p.s.

Presentation of William Smyth, chaplain, to the vicarage of the church of Shreve Hales, in the diocese of Coventry and Liechfield, in the king's gift by reason of the temporalities of the alien priory of Ware being in his hands on account of the war with France.

Presentation of William Scardeburgh to the vicarage of the church of Skipton in Craven, in the diocese of York.

Presentation to John Spendelowe, chaplain, to the parish church of Wyondeston, in the diocese of Norwich, in the king's gift by reason of the minority of Thomas de Moubray, 'chevalier,' son and heir of Thomas, duke of Norfolk, tenant in chief of Richard II.

Presentation of William Lochard to the church of All Saints, Hastynge, in the diocese of Chichester.

Revocation of letters patent dated 10 March, 2 Henry IV, granting to Richard Gabriel, clerk, and Elias Beere the custody of certain lands, rents and services in the city and suburbs of Exeter at a certain rent; as Adam Sent of Exeter has shown the king that John Ponton, deceased, was lately seized in his demesne as of fee of the premises and granted them to him and his heirs and assigns and he was in possession until he was removed by colour of the said letters patent, which he prayed might be revoked; and the king accordingly directed the sheriff of Devon to summon the said Richard and Elias to appear before him in Chancery at a certain day now past to show cause why the letters should not be revoked, and the sheriff returned that he had handed over the execution of the writ to the mayor and bailiffs of the liberty of the city of Exeter, who answered that they had summoned the said Richard and Elias by John Skam, John Hale, William Frankelyn and Peter Fourbour, good men of the city, and the said Elias did not appear and the said Richard appeared in person but had nothing to say and judgement was given against them.

Whereas John Hende, citizen of London, Clement Spycye, Robert Rykedon, Thomas Barsham, Walter Gantron, John Cane and William Effelde, clerk, lately acquired to themselves and their heirs from Robert de Scales, 'chevalier,' a messuage, 280 acres of land, 18 acres of meadow,