churches pertaining to the same, so that he shall agree with those who have any parcel of his inheritance of the king's grant during his minority, and saving to the king his homage when he shall come to full age.

By K.

Pardon, at the supplication of the king's kinswoman Joan de Beauchamp, lady of Borgevenny, to Gruff ap Henri of Ewias Lacy, who lately rose against the king in the company of Owyn Glyndourdy and other Welsh rebels.

By p.s.

The like to the following:—
John Perres of Ush.
Cadogan ap Howell Vaghan of Elvell.

Grant for life to the king's consort the queen of the manor of Havering atte Bourne and the herbage and pasturage and an annuity of 100l. from the farm of Queenshute and the farm and issues of the city of London at the hands of the sheriffs (as on p. 259).

By K.

Grant for life to the king's servant Thomas Shirwode, one of the yeomen of the kitchen of the king's consort the queen, for his good service to the king's father, deceased, and the king, of a tenement and 200 acres of land in Slyndefold called 'Thelelond,' forfeited to the king because one John Paxton, prebendary of the cathedral church of Chichester, held them as parcel of his prebend for 12 years before 27 April last without licence, and worth 4l. yearly, as appears by an inquisition taken before the escheator in the county of Sussex, to hold from that date to that value, so that he answer for any surplus at the Exchequer.

By p.s.

Presentation of William Tyndur, chaplain, to the vicarage of the church of Pulton, in the diocese of York and of the immediate jurisdiction of Stephen Lescrope, archdeacon of Richemond, in the king's gift by reason of the alien priory of Lancaster being in his hands on account of the war with France.

Presentation of John Barell, chaplain, to the church of St. Illugan, St. Illugan, in the diocese of Exeter.

Presentation of John Methet, chaplain, to the church of New Radenor, in the diocese of Hereford.

Grant to John de Tunstall, esquire, that he be one of the king's serjeants at arms as Randolf del See lately was, receiving 12l. daily for life from the issues of the city of York.

By K.

Grant, during pleasure, to William Kellowe of Newcastle on Tyne, esquire, in recompence of his great labours and expenses in the king's service without reward, of the office of tonnage and pesage and wools in the port of the town, notwithstanding that the grant of the office used to pertain to the treasurer.

By K.

Presentation of William Norton, parson of the church of St. Martin within Ludgate, in the diocese of London, to the church of Everdon, in the diocese of Lincoln, on an exchange of benefices with William Donne.