Grant for life to the king's knight Henry Lescrope of all lands, rents and services of any tenants within the lordships of Tallagham and Engliscunnyn forfeited to the king by reason of their rebellion, to the value of 10l. yearly, so that he answer for any surplus; and grant to him of full power to receive into the king's grace, by fines at his discretion, any such who may have become rebels by coercion, and grant to him of such fines. By K.

Grant for life to Richard Ludlowe, prior of Seynt Clere in Wales, of the lands late of David Gwillem within the county of Kermerdyn and all corn at present on them, forfeited by the rebellion of the said David, to the value of 40s. yearly, so that he answer for any surplus; and licence for him to cut timber for the repair of the houses of his priory within the wood of the abbot of Whyteloond, a rebel.

Appointment of the king's brother John, earl of Somerset, as the king's lieutenant of South Wales with full power to receive into the king's grace any Welsh rebels of South Wales, saving to the king the forfeiture of their lands and goods.

MEMBRANE 22.

Commission to John Stevenes, mayor of Bristol, and Thomas Saundres, because many magnates and other men of Britany have lately invaded the realm, burnt divers towns and killed, wounded, robbed and captured the king's lieges, contrary to the form of the late truce at Leulyngham between the king and the French, of whom the Bretons are allies, and also have assembled in great fleets at sea to destroy the king's lieges, to take men at arms and archers and mariners for the defence of the ships which the men of the town are sending to Bordeaux and other places for wines and other merchandize and to make war on the men of Britany and others who may do anything contrary to the truce. [Fidelem.] By K.

The like to the following:—

The mayor, John Haule, John Corp and Edmund Arnold, in the town of Dertemeth.
The mayor, William Bentele, Henry Beon and Richard Rowe, in the town of Plymmouth.
The mayor, Walter Lange and John Lymbourne, in the town of Suthampton.
The mayor, Edmund Belleyetere, John Wentworth, Thomas Drew, Robert de Brunhame and John Brandon, in the town of Lenne.
The bailiffs, Hugh atte Fen, William Oxeneye and Robert atte Fen, in the town of Great Jermouth.

Commission to Thomas, lord of Morlee, and Miles de Stapelton to keep the town of Great Jermuth against invasion by the king's enemies at sea.

By K.

Commission, for twelve days, to the king's kinsman Edmund, earl of Kent, to take horses for certain business of the king to be done by him.

By K.

Mandate to the keepers of the passage in the port of Bristol, although divers of the king's enemies at sea have killed, taken and despoiled some of the king's lieges, burned divers towns of the realm on the sea-coast
