

1403.

Membrane 22—cont.

and carried off goods of the king's lieges, to permit certain masters and mariners of ships in the said port to go with their ships and a sufficient power of men at arms and archers to Bordeaux and other places to buy wines and other merchandise to bring to the realm; notwithstanding the late writ ordering them not to let any person go to foreign parts without the king's licence except officers and ministers of Calais and the castles and marches there.

By K.

The like in the following ports :—

Plymmouth.

Dertemouth.

Lenne.

Southampton.

Great Jernemuth.

Sept. 21.
Devynock.

Grant to John Oldcastell, 'chivaler,' John ap Henry and John Fairford, clerk, of full power to receive into the king's grace any Welsh rebels of the king's lordships of Brekenok, Buyllt, Cantresselly, Hay, Glynbough and Dynas, so that they surrender their bows, arrows, swords and other armour offensive and defensive and take oaths of loyalty, saving to the king the forfeiture of their lands and goods. [F'adera.]

By K.

July 25.
Stafford.

Grant, during pleasure, to the king's son Henry, prince of Wales, of full power to punish all rebels of the counties of Chester and Flynt and the lordship of Dynby who lately rose against the king in the company of Henry Percy, son of the earl of Northumberland, or to receive them into the king's grace by fines or otherwise, saving to the king the forfeiture of their lands and goods. [F'adera.]

By K.

July 25.
Lichfield.

Mandate to the mayor and sheriffs of London to receive the head of Thomas de Percy, earl of Worcester, who lately rose in insurrection, and place it on the bridge of the city to stay there as long as it will last. [F'adera.]

By K.

The like to the mayor and sheriffs of York to receive the head of Henry Percy.