1403.
Nov. 4. Circomester.

Grant to the king's knight Wynnlow Dorsteinour, in recompense of the king's promise to him and his wife at the time of their marriage, of the custody of the manor of Waddon with the chase called 'Waddon Chase,' and the park of the same during the minority of Edmund, son and heir of the earl of March, with the fees, wages and profits pertaining to the same, to the value of 40l. yearly, so that he answer for any surplus. By p.s.

Nov. 1. Westminster.

Inspeuimus and confirmation to Henry de Coton and the heirs of Henry de Delves of letters patent dated 28 June, 14 Richard II. (Calendar, p. 277.) For 20s. paid in the hammer.

Nov. 15. Westminster.

Pardon to John Wilbarne the younger of Biron alias John son of John Wilbarne of Biron, indicted of having on Friday after St. Bartholomew, 3 Henry IV, killed John Westby of Biron in the fields of Biron and also of having on Friday before the Decollation of St. John the Baptist, 8 Henry IV, killed John Westby in the fields of Biron. By p.s.

Nov. 20. Westminster.

Appointment, during pleasure, of Roger Landford as weigher of wools in the port of Sandwich and all ports and places adjacent, receiving the accustomed wages and fees. By bill of the treasurer.

1404.

Exemplification, at the request of the men and tenants of the manor of Methesham, co. Wills, of a certificate sent into Chancery by the treasurer and chamberlains of an entry in Domensday Book (fo. 65).

April 25. Westminster.

Declaration that the clergy shall not contribute to the payment of the subsidy granted to the king by the commons of the realm with the assent of the lords spiritual and temporal in the last Parliament except for lands acquired in mortmain after the year 8 Edward I, for which their successors have been accustomed to contribute. Any sums levied contrary to this declaration shall be restored. By K. & C.

May 10. Westminster.

Whereas the king's knight Richard Armendell was seised in his demesne as of fee of the manors of Wollere, Oseberewyke, Akyld, Coupland, Yeven, Trolhop, Kyllom, Antercheste, Myndrom, Presfesen and Palfston in Glendale and three knights' fees in Ponde, Crowecom and Kynmerston, Baynmore, Dychned, Ulcestere, Warynfold, Unthunk and Wollere, co. Northumberland, as pertaining to the manor of Wollere, and enfeoffed Henry Percy, earl of Northumberland, Thomas Percy, late earl of Worcester, Henry Percy the son of the said earl of Northumberland, William Beauchamp, 'chivaler,' Lewis Clifford, 'chivaler,' Richard Felde, clerk, John Lyncolne, clerk, and Robert Tye, esquire, of the same and afterwards with his assent they released all their right therein to the said Henry the son; and also the said Richard was seised in his demesne as of fee of the manors of Byker, Elvingham, Neuham and Neustede, co. Northumberland, and gave them in fee to Hugh de Wyguyne, Thomas Wytfeld, Roger Colche, citizen of London, John Coburly, clerk, and Henry Keston and afterwards certain indentures were made between him and the said Henry Percy the son, that the said Hugh and others should enfeof the said Henry, Thomas Carnyka, chaplain, John Kyng, chaplain, and Thomas de Knayton, esquire, of the same to the use of the said Henry and his heirs under certain conditions and they accordingly enfeof them under the condition that if the said Richard should pay to the said Henry 500 marks at a certain day or when he or his heirs or