1404.
Grant to John Calveley and John Swerton, administrators of the goods of John Calveley, 'chivaler,' who died intestate, of all his goods, taken into the king's hands on his death on account of an outlawry against him in a foreign county because he was mainpernor of Richard Vernon, 'chivaler,' to the value of 200l. that they may pay his debts and execute his will for the safety of his soul.
By K.

Commission to John, prior of Plymouth, the abbot of Tavestoke, the abbot of Bokelond, Robert Hill the elder, Oto Chamberon, John Gorges, Richard Pipercell, William Bontelegh, William Bogherewe, William Venour and Henry Bone to take stone-cutters, carpenters and other artificers for the fortification of the town of Plymouth and the port there with a wall of stone and lime and the making and cancellation of fortalices, towers and other defences.

MEMBRANE 2.

Revocation of the protection with clause "olumus," for one year, lately granted by letters patent to John Comer of Shirburne, staying on the king's service in the parts of Picardy in the company of the king's brother John, earl of Somerset, captain of the town of Calais, on the safe-custody of the same, because he delays in the county of Essex, as the sheriff has certified.

Grant to Thomas Corbet and John Ryder of 10 marks which Henry Savage of Eyesham owes to John Kynarston, rebel, forfeited to the king on account of his insurrection.
By K.

Jan. 27. Westminster.
Presentation of Thomas Lentwardyn, vicar of the church of Prestchute, in the diocese of Salisbury, to the church of Nyton, in the Isle of Wight, in the diocese of Winchester, on an exchange of benefices with Nicholas Burgh.

Presentation of Henry Roys, parson of the church of Chikerell, in the diocese of Salisbury, to the vicarage of the church of Tavestoke, in the same diocese, on an exchange of benefices with John Boteler.

Pardon to William son of Thurston de Prestwyche for the death of Robert le Keener, 'bastard,' late servant of Ralph de Prestwyche.
By p.s.

Grant for life to Humphrey de Stafford of the office of rider of the forest of Fekenham, co. Worcester, with the due fees, wages and other profits, as Richard Lenche, deceased, had of the grant of Richard II.
By p.s.

Exemplification, at the request of Roger de Swillyngton, knight, now lord of the manor of Blytheburgh, co. Suffolk, of the tenour of a charter dated at Winchester, 22 June, 13 Henry [III], by the hand of R. bishop of Chichester, the chancellor, granting to William de Norwoic and his heirs for his homage and service the said manor with soc and sae, thol and tham and infengethef, warren, with the coast and wreck of sea from the south part of Eyolfiff by Southwold to the port of Dunwich and with all liberties and free customs and quitances as it was in the king's hands except the hundred of Flithyngh, at the service of one knight's fee. Witnesses: earl Roger le Bygout, Henry de Longo Campo, William de Cantilnpo, Roger de Clifford, Thomas Basset, Geoffrey Dispenser, Robert son of Peter, Geoffrey de Say.