

Membrane 2 - cont.

1404.

Feb. 8.

Westminster.

Licence, for one year, for William Fencotes and John Bekwyth, whom the abbot of St. Mary's, Fountains, has appointed as his attorneys in accordance with a licence by letters patent, to appoint attorneys in their place. Richard de Norton received the attorneys by writ.

Feb. 5.

Westminster.

Grant for life to John Acton, esquire, in lieu of a grant to him by letters patent dated 1 August, 3 Henry IV (see p. 116), surrendered because invalid, of the office of constable of the castle of Shrewsbury, receiving 10*l.* yearly from that date from the issues of the county of Salop with all other profits and commodities belonging to the office.

1403.

Mandate in pursuance to the sheriff.

By K.

Oct. 1.

Westminster.

Grant to the king's esquire Walter Beauchamp of 20*l.* in the hands of the farmers of the manor of Bardewell, co. Essex, due to Henry Percy, deceased, and forfeited to the king by reason of his rebellion. By K.

Dec. 4.

Westminster.

Pardon to the king's esquire William Fymbarowe, marshal of the King's Bench, for the escape of Richard Horkesley alias Ramkyn from the prison of the Marshalsea of the King's Bench. By p.s.

1404.

Feb. 13.

Westminster.

Licence, for 40*s.* paid in the hanaper by Thomas Walden and Margaret his wife, for them to enfeoff John Pensax, Thomas Thorpe and Robert Aloxtton of their manor of Aungrepark, co. Essex, held in chief, and for these to re-enfeoff them of the same for life, with remainders to Thomas Bataill and Eleanor the daughter of Thomas Oudeby and the heirs of their bodies and to the right heirs of the said Thomas Walden.

Feb. 12.

Westminster.

Licence, for 46*s.* 8*d.* paid by Frank Scolond in the hanaper, for him to enfeoff William Berneville and Alice his wife of a fourth part of the manor of Exton, co. Somerset, held in chief.

Feb. 4.

Westminster.

Pardon to Richard Grene, esquire, for the death of John Brynkelee at the town of Bayonne. By p.s.

Feb. 14.

Westminster.

Whereas the father of Robert Whiteney, esquire, and his uncle and a great part of his relations (parentele) were killed on the king's service at the taking of Edmund Mortemer and the substance of his living is burnt and destroyed by the Welsh rebels so that he has no castle or fortress where he can stay for the resistance and castigation of the rebels, the king grants to him the castle of Clufford and the lordships of Clufford and Glasbury with all lands, rents, services, fees, advowsons, royalties, liberties, franchises, jurisdictions, escheats, fines, ransoms and other commodities and full punishment and execution of all rebels of and in the said lordships with all forfeitures and escheats, which castle and lordships before they were burnt, wasted and destroyed by the rebels were of the value of 100 marks yearly, to hold from 15 October last during the minority of Edmund son and heir of the earl of March, and so from heir to heir, so that he cause the castle to be repaired and stay in it for defence during the war and answer for any surplus yearly at the Exchequer. By K.

Feb. 15.

Westminster.

Whereas the abbot of Bury in his account of the king's moneys which he had to levy from Michaelmas, 2 Henry IV, until the Michaelmas following was charged with 50*l.* of prest-money to Thomas Morieux, 'chivaler,' deceased, late constable of the Tower of London, on 30 March, 7 Richard II, for his fee and the sum was demanded at the Exchequer against the abbot and John Inglesthorpe, late sheriff of Norfolk and Suffolk, in his account from Michaelmas, 3 Henry IV, until Michaelmas following was charged with the sum in the name of the abbot and intends to levy it from John le Straunge, 'chivaler,' and Eleanor his wife, tenants of the lands of the said Thomas; the king pardons the said 50*l.* to them. By K.