1404.

Grant for six years to the burgesses of Colcestre, in aid of their great costs and expenses in the enclosure of the town with a wall of stone and lime for the resistance of the king’s enemies, that they shall be exempted from sending any of their fellow-burgesses to any Parliaments, provided that they keep and support all statutes and ordinances and charges made and granted in the said Parliaments. By p.s.

MEMBRANE 1.

Assignment to the treasurer of the household for the expenses of the household of all sums of money incurred by the abbot of Peterborough for the escapes from his prison of Peterborough of John Merchant, ‘bocher,’ approver, and John Bocher of Oundell, William Tumber and Richard Tusmer son of John Bocher of Oundell, detained for felony, and 12l. 6s. 8d. late of Hamo, an unknown stranger, pertaining to the king on account of a felony committed by him at Brakstede, co. Essex, on Thursday before the Nativity of St. Mary, 21 Richard II, which came into the hands of John Aylene and John Thornham, then constables of Brakstede.

By p.s.

Presentation of Walter Whitby to the church of Haddeleygh, in the diocese of London.

Grant to Hugh atte Fen of all goods late of Ralph Rainsy of Yernemouth, forfeited to the king on account of his outlawry on a plea of debt. By K.

Presentation of Robert de Egerlay, chaplain, to the church of Munstreworth, in the diocese of Hereford.

Pardon to Edward Hastynges, ‘chivaler,’ brother of Hugh Hastynges, esquire, son of Hugh Hastynges, ‘chivaler,’ son of Hugh Hastynges, ‘chivaler,’ younger brother of John Hastynges son of Hugh Hastynges, ‘chivaler,’ deceased, of any issues from two acres of land in Sutton Scotency, co. Southampton, which the said Hugh father of John held in chief of Edward III, with all issues from the other possessions of the latter, held of Henry, duke of Lancaster, the king’s grandfather, as of the duchy, from the death of the said Hugh which have been concealed from Edward III, Richard II, or the present king. By K.

Grant to John Cokayn, ‘lunel,’ Richard Whitnyngton, Henry Poumfreit and Richard Leverssege, to the use of the king’s son John of the custody of all manors, lordships, lands, rents, services, fees and advowsons late of John Dodyngsels, ‘chivaler,’ deceased, during the minority of Edward his son and heir, with the marriage of the latter, and so from heir to heir. Vacated because otherwise in this year.

By K.