Exemplification, at the request of David Holgreve, of letters patent dated 10 July, 13 Richard II, granting to him and Ellen his wife and their heirs and assigns the manor of Mikelfeld, co. York, and a tenement in Newcastle on Tyne.

Grant for life to John de Skelton, 'chivaler,' of 40 marks from the issues of the county of Cumberland.

Assignment of 5,000 marks from the second moiety of the tenth granted to the king in the last convocation of the clergy of the province of Canterbury for the payment of the wages of the king's brother John, earl of Somerset, captain of the castle and town of Calais, and the men at arms, archers and other fencible men there, with priority of payment, to the end that in the meantime he may be able to borrow money for the payment.

Vacated because otherwise below.

Protection with clause columnus, for one year, for Nicholas Hamberk, knight, captain of the castle of Flynt in Wales, staying on the king's service on the safe-custody of the same.

The like for David Howell, constable of the castle of Lampstefan in South Wales.

Protection with clause columnus, for one year, for Adam de Fisshewyk, staying on the king's service in the company of the king's son Thomas de Lancastre, steward of England, lieutenant in Ireland, on the safe-custody of that land.

Presentation of John Clyftton to the church of Weston Turville, in the diocese of Lincoln.

Licence for the patrons and merchants of four galleys of Venice, of which two are in the port of London and the other two are coming with divers merchandise to the realm to unload there, to have the space of one year next for the delivery of their merchandise notwithstanding any statute, ordinance or proclamation.

Exemption for life of the king's esquire Thomas Mamdevill from being put on assizes, juries, inquisitions or recognitions and from being made sheriff, escheator, controller, collector, coroner or other officer of minister of the king against his will.

Presentation of Richard atte Kirk, parson of the church of Wydmerpull, in the diocese of York, to the church of Southwokington, in the diocese of London, in the king's gift by reason of the custody of the land and heir of Ingelraun Bryne, 'chivaler,' deceased, being in his hands, on an exchange of benefices with Ralph Forthvington.

Pardon to John Lowdham of Norhampton of 65l. 10s. 2d. in which he is bound to John Sterlyng and Richard Medernose, customers in the port of Ipswich, for the custom of woods shipped by him there.

Pardon to Robert Newton alias Robert de Sancery for having on Thursday after St. Denis last at Tuttlebury stolen a grey horse worth 20s. from Richard Burton and a black horse worth 10s. from Emma Belleystetter.