

1404.

Membrane 33—cont.

lands, rents and services which he had in the towns of Erewes and Brighton, co. York, with the manor of Claxby, co. Lincoln, to hold for life at a rent of a rose at Midsummer, and also the manor of Foston, co. Leicester, to hold for sixty years at a rent of a clove of gillyflower at Christmas, provided that if he died within the term the said Henry might re-enter the manor, and also by the name of Henry de Percy, lord of Alnewyk, on 8 April, 42 Edward III, by charter indented granted to the said Thomas and the heirs of his body the manor of Wresill with its members of Brighton and Erghes, co. York, and Claxby and Slotheby, co. Lincoln, and the advowson of the church of Wresill, with remainder to the said Henry and his right heirs, and afterwards on 11 December, 1 Henry IV, by letters patent the king granted to the earl the manor of Haveryng atte Boure for life, and afterwards on 10 September, 4 Henry IV, by other letters patent (see p. 259) the king granted for life to his consort Joan, queen of England, the said manor of Wresill by the name of the castle and manor of Wresill and all lands in the same town and in Loftsom, Brighton, Erghes, Foston and Claxby with Slotheby late of the said Thomas; the king ——. Unfinished.

Nov. 8.
Coventry.

Notification to all officers in Ireland that the king holds John Wellyngton, prior of Lanthoney Prima in Wales, to be a loyal subject; on complaint by the latter that certain lands and possessions of his in Ireland have been taken into the king's hands on the suggestion of certain enemies of his that he was a rebel and adherent of Owin Glandurdy.

By p.s.

Dec. 5.
Westminster.

Writ of aid for the prior of Spaldyng, lately appointed by Henry, bishop of Lincoln, to collect the first moiety of the tenth granted to the king by the clergy of the province of Canterbury in the fifth year, in the archdeaconries of Lincoln and Stowe, and to pay it to the king at the feast of Martinmas last, as although he has satisfied the king of the whole sum at the Exchequer certain persons refuse to pay him.

Dec. 7.
Westminster.

Commission to Thomas Chaucer of the custody of all lands late of Ralph Stonor, knight, tenant in chief, during the minority of Thomas Stonor his son and heir, and so from heir to heir, paying 200*l.* at the Exchequer, maintaining the houses and buildings and supporting all charges.

By bill of the treasurer.

Vacated by surrender and cancelled, because the king committed the custody to him on 24 January.

Dec. 4.
Westminster.

Grant for life to the king's esquire William Marchall of the office of constable of the castle of Wynchestre with wages, fees and profits as Robert Cholmeley, deceased, had.

By p.s.

Dec. 7.
Westminster.

Pardon to John Hardy of Thaxstede, 'bocher,' indicted of having on Friday after St. Barnabas last killed John Parlibien of Thaxstede, 'wryght,' with a 'pycheforke' at Wymbys.

By p.s.

Dec. 5.
Westminster.

Licence for William Lovell, clerk, to sue the pope for certain graces for canonries and prebends in the cathedral church of York and the collegiate church of Beverley and obtain possession of the same.

By K.

Dec. 8.
Westminster.

Grant for life to William Kirkeby, chaplain, of the wardenship of the hospital of St. Nicholas by the town of Carlisle, void by the death of John Ambell, chaplain.

By K.