Appointmet of the king's son Thomas de Lancastre, steward of England, as lieutenant of Ireland for three years according to the form of a certain indenture, with power to keep the peace and the laws and customs of that land, to punish or pardon English and Irish, to grant forfeited lands to suitable persons after due proclamation, to receive all issues pertaining to the king and expend them on the defence of the land and other charges, to present to and confirm benefits in the king's gift, to confirm liberties, franchises and privileges granted by the king's progenitors, to receive fealties of archbishops and bishops and grant restitution of temporalities, to receive homages of tenants, to appoint and remove all officers and ministers of the king not having estate in fee or for life, to move the common bench and exchequer to suitable places, to take victuals and necessaries for the expenses of his household and his soldiers, to cause all officers and ministers to render their accounts, to enquire about all forfeited goods concealed from the king, and to do all other things pertaining to his office and necessary for the good rule, safety and peace of that land.

By K.

Grant to the king's clerk John Makworth of the prebend of Empyngham in the cathedral church of St. Mary, Lincoln.

By K.

Mandate in pursuance to H. bishop of Lincoln.

Mandate in pursuance to the dean and chapter.

By K.

Pardon to William de Hasilhurst of Knottisford for all felonies and trespasses committed by him except treason, murder, rape and common larceny.

By p.s.

Presentation of John de Kymes, chaplain, to the church of St. John, Southampton, in the diocese of Winchester.

By p.s.

Grant to the king's servitor Thomas Sandywes of the office of parker of the parks of Galgheshull within the lordship of Denbiegh in North Wales and Lyttilpark under the castle of Denbiegh, during the minority of the son and heir of the earl of March, with the due fees, wages and profits, and so from heir to heir.

By p.s.

Assignment to the king's clerk Thomas More, treasurer of the household, for the expenses of the household, of all goods late of John Watts, pertaining to the king because he killed John Drayton alias Chapman at Leccot in the parish of Great Grandesdene, co. Huntingdon, and afterwards fled.

Licence for Richard Petir, parson of the church of St. Patrick, Trym, in Ireland, to absent himself from Ireland from 7 October last for three years and dwell in the University of Oxford or Cambridge to study and meanwhile receive all profits from his church and the chapels annexed.

Commission, for three months, to John Walley and John Crosby to take 'plovers' and 'curlews' and other fowls for the expenses of the household and carriage for the same.

By K.

Grant to Robert Seynkele, parson of the church of Wakerle, in the diocese of Lincoln, of the prebend Consumpta per Mare in the cathedral church of St. Paul, London, in the king's gift by reason of the voidance of the bishopric of London, on an exchange of benefices with Robert Northwell.

By K.