Ratification of the estate which John Pulford has as parson of the church of Grendon, in the diocese of Coventry and Lichfield.

The like for the following:

Master John Streensall, parson of the parish church of Boston, in the diocese of Lincoln. By p.s.

Master Edmund Alderford, brother of John Alderford, clerk, parson of the church of St. John the Baptist, Madirnarket, in Norwich.

The king's clerk Henry Merston, chaplain, canon and prebendary of Bekyngham in the collegiate church of St. Mary, Suthwell. By p.s.

Robert Wyntryngham, parson of the church of Ansty, in the diocese of London, and provost of Cotherstoke, in the diocese of Lincoln. By p.s.

William Neuhagh, parson of the church of Holy Trinity, Chester, in the diocese of Coventry and Lichfield. By p.s.

Thomas de Eskheved, vicar of the church of Crossethwayt, in the diocese of Carlisle.

Roger Baret, parson of the church of Westbrygge, in the diocese of Norwich.

Roger Melles, chaplain of a chantry lately founded by Gilbert de Wollavyngton in the chapel of St. Mary the Virgin in the cemetery of the church of Wollavyngton, in the diocese of Bath and Wells.

Thomas Tesdale, parson of the church of St. Cross within the city of York.

Simon Wenslawe, parson of the church of Collome within the archbishopric of York. By p.s.

Mandate to John Hende, mayor of London and escheator in the same city, for the restitution of the temporalities of the bishopric of Winchester to Henry, late bishop of Lincoln, whom the pope has translated to the church of Winchester, and who has renounced everything prejudicial to the king in the papal bull and whose fealty the king has taken. [Federe.] By K.