Grant to the burgesses of Herewiche, in aid of the construction of a castle or fortress within the town for the safe-custody of the same and the adjoining parts, of certain customs for five years.

By K.

Licence for Mark William, owner of a ship called the Marie of Bristol, of which John Adam is master, and Roger Myne, John Baumam, William Pytte, William Hoggekynnes and John Bateller to load the said ship with woollen cloths, old wine and 20 quarters of salt and take it to Ireland to make their profit there of the cloth and wine and to re-load it with oxhides, skins of rabbits and otters' cloaks and other Irish cloths and salmon to be salted with the salt and bring it back to England after payment of the customs, subsidies and other moneys due to the king.

Presentation of John Freen, vicar of the church of St. Mary, Oxford, in the diocese of Lincoln, to the church of St. Giles, Horstpathe, in the same diocese, on an exchange of benefices with John Plummere.

Presentation of John Granger, parson of the church of Huwyssh, in the diocese of Salisbury, to the church of St. John the Baptist, Suthampton, in the diocese of Winchester, on an exchange of benefices with William Swayn.

Presentation of John Long, chaplain, to the church of Wotton Fitz Payn, in the diocese of Salisbury.

Licence for Thomas Felde, doctor of laws, to obtain from the pope a grace or provision to a canony under expectation of a prebend in the cathedral church of St. Peter, York, and another in the collegiate church of St. John, Beverley, and to take possession of the same.

By K.

Grant to the king's consort Joan, queen of England, of the custody of the manors of Caversham, Boreford and Shipton, co. Oxford, the manor of Subbory with the burgage of Chepyng Subbory and the charge of Cressland, co. Gloucester, the manor of Great Merlowe with the borough, co. Buckingham, the manor of Perlethorpe, co. Nottingham, the manors of Chettenham Holt, Chettilyhampton and Langtre with the foreign court of Wynkeley, co. Devon, the castle and town of Lantrussan with the lordships of Meskyn, Glyrothency, the manor and castle of Clune with the hamlets of Combrechynok, Pentergath and Radome, the castle and town of Kendeg with the lordship of Tysarth, the manor of Boneryton and all lands in Griffithesmore in Wales, which Constance late the wife of Thomas le Despenser lately had after his death of the king's grant, to hold with all other manors, castles, lordships, towns, lands, courts, chases, hamlets and other possessions in England, Wales and the marches and elsewhere, with all commodities, issues, profits, liberties, forests, chases, wards, marriages, escheats, reliefs, reversions, royalties, fees and advowsons pertaining to them, as the said Thomas had them during the minority of his son and heir, and so from heir to heir, in recompense of 400 marks yearly in part deduction of 10,000 marks yearly granted to her for life in dower.

By K.

Presentation of Master William Langton, parson of the church of Wellys, in the diocese of Norwich, to the parish church of Whynypil, in the diocese of Exeter, in the king's gift by reason of the temporalities of the alien priory of Cowyk being in his hands, on an exchange of benefices with John Drake.