in London by Bowcheirche late of Robert de Risby of London, 'draper,' on the death of his wife, in the king's hands by the forfeiture of William Lasynghy, to hold to the value of 40l. yearly, provided that they answer for any surplus.

By p.s.

Vacated by surrender and cancelled, because on 9 June in the ninth year the king granted the same to them and their heirs.

July 27. Westminster.  Grant for life to John de Par, esquire, of the office of master forester of the forest of Caupeland, in the king's hands by reason of the forfeiture of the earl of Northumberland, with the due fees, wages and profits.  By p.s.

July 29. Westminster.  Presentation of Richard Yonge to the church of All Saints, Westbere, in the diocese of Canterbury, in the king's gift by reason of the temporalities of the abbey of St. Augustine, Canterbury, being in his hands.

Membraue 13.

April 28. Westminster.  Grant for life to John Hegeman, late servant of the king's uncle the duke of Gloucester, of a vacant plot of land in Stratford atte Bowe, co. Middlesex, containing 12 acres of meadow and pasture, pertaining to the king as escheated because concealed from him and Richard II, to hold to the value of 40s. yearly, so that he answer for any surplus.  By p.s.

July 19. Westminster.  Mandate to the escheator in the counties of Warwick and Leicester for the restitution of the temporalities of the abbey of St. Mary de Pratis, Lyecestre, to Richard Rotheley, canon of the house, whose election as abbot Philip, bishop of Lincoln, has confirmed and whose fealty the king has taken.

The like to the escheators in the following counties:—

Bedford and Buckingham.
Northampton and Rutland.
Nottingham and Derby.
Lincoln.

The like to John Hende, mayor of London and escheator in that city.
The like to the chancellor in the county palatine of Lancaster.
Writ de intendendo in pursuance to the tenants.

July 13. Westminster.  Whereas the prior of Monkeskirkby has fled from his house, from which the earl Marshal was captured, taking all his goods with him; the king being unwilling that the priory should be destitute of governance, on account of the peril that might easily happen to it, has granted the custody of it to his knight John Robessart until the prior shall declare before the king or council the cause of his withdrawal, so that if the prior shall declare that the cause of his absence was reasonable and can save his estate and honour the said John shall answer to him for the issues of the priory, but if not the said John shall answer for them at the Exchequer, provided that he maintain the houses, buildings, enclosures and gardens without waste and support all charges.
